100+ WEBSITES BLOCKED FOR AIDING ILLEGAL INVESTMENTS, JOB FRAUDS

The Union home ministry said over 100 websites operating from abroad have been blocked as they were into illegal investments and job frauds

RETD WORKERS, WOMEN, JOBLESS ARE TARGETS

These frauds typically involve targeted digital advertisements using keywords like ghar baithe job (work from home) and ghar baithe kamai kaise karen (how to earn while sitting at home) in multiple languages. The targets are often retired employees, women and unemployed youth seeking part-time jobs, an official spokesperson of the ministry said

PEOPLE WERE LURED WITH COMMISSIONS

- Fraudsters get in touch with victims through apps like WhatsApp or Telegram and convince them to perform simple tasks such as liking and subscribing to videos or rating maps
- Victims are given a commission, then persuaded to invest for higher returns. When they do, their deposits are frozen, resulting in ripoff

Wait gets longer for BJP CMs call

Shah meets Modi, but no final word yet

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@New Delhi

THREE days after winning the Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan with comfortable majority, the Bharatiya Janata Party is yet to take a call on who will be the chief ministers of these states.

Shivraj Singh Chouhan

Vasundhara Raje

Raman Singh

On Wednesday, Union home minister Amit Shah and BJP president J P Nadda met Prime Minister Narendra Modi to discuss the names of chief ministers. Sources said the meeting went on for hours but no decision was taken. This was the second meeting between BJP's central leadership and the Prime Minister in the past 24 hours. The first meeting, held on Tuesday, was inconclusive.

Sources said that discussions were also held on the appointment of observers for MP, Rajashthan and Chhattisgarh legislative party meetings, which are likely to be held soon for the selection of their respective CMs.

Wednesday's meeting was held in the wake of resignation of 10 MPs, including two Union ministers, who had successfully contested the assembly elections. They submitted their resignations after meeting the PM in Parliament, triggering speculation that some of them were being considered for the CM's post, as the BJP prefers new faces in Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan to lead development ahead of the Lok Sabha polls.

However, a senior BJP leader told this newspaper that the party may stick to old leaders if there is no consensus within the party on new faces. "It is anticipated the PM and other leaders may go with new faces in the three states. However, if there is no consensus, then the old faces may continue in each state till the 2024 general elections," he said.

Among the new names doing the rounds are Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, Vasundhara Raje, Mahant Balaknath, and Union railway minister Ashwini Vaishnaw for Rajasthan.

Narendra Singh Tomar, who resigned on Wednesday as Union agriculture minister, Prahlad Singh Patel, who resigned as MoS for food procession, and Union civil aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia are in the race.

As for Chhattisgarh, former chief minister Raman Singh and O P Chaudhary are being considered for the top post, according to BJP sources.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Wednesday issued an order to set up a special court for a fast-track trial of journalist Gauri Lankesh and litterateur MM Kalburgi murder cases.

In his order, Siddaramaiah said that a special investigating team was formed to probe the murder of Gauri Lankesh.

Gauri Lankesh was murdered on September 5, 2017. So far, 18 people have been arrested and a chargesheet filed. The trial is moving at a slow pace.

"As Kavita Lankesh, Gauri's sister, requested the state government to form a special court with a permanent judge to hear the murder case, I have issued an order in this direction,'' the chief minister said.

In another order, Siddaramaiah said Kalburgi was murdered on August 31, 2015. A chargesheet was filed during 2018-19. Although questioning of the family members of Kalburgi is over, proceedings in the court are on. Kalburgi's wife Umadevi M Kalburgi requested the government to form a special court to hear the murder case. An order has been issued in this regard, Siddaramaiah said.

Prof Kalburgi was shot dead by two persons at his house.

LS passes bills to raise J&K seats, provide quota

PARVEZ SULTAN @New Delhi

THE J&K Reorganisation (Amendment) Bill 2023, which proposed to increase the number of seats in the assembly from 83 to 90, was passed in the Lok Sabha on Wednesday. The Bill seeking to nominate two members from the Kashmiri migrants, one representing PoK refugees and one woman to the assembly was introduced in July.

Migrants are those who migrated from the Kashmir Valley or any other part of J&K after November 1, 1989 due to terror.

The bill also reserves seven seats for SCs and nine for STs. Another Bill — the Jammu and Kashmir Reservation (Amendment) Bill 2023 — was also passed after six hours of debate.

"Earlier, there were 37 seats in Jammu, now there are 43. Earlier there were 46 in Kashmir, now there are 47 and in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir (PoK), 24 seats have been reserved since PoK is ours," Union home minister Amit Shah said in his reply to the debate in the Lok Sabha.

He blamed first prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru for the 'sufferings' of people in Kashmir. Shah said Nehru made two blunders — announcing a ceasefire when our forces were winning against Pakistani invaders; and taking the Kashmir issue to the UN.

"There were two blunders during the Nehru reign because of which Kashmir had to suffer. Our Army was winning but as they reached areas in Punjab, ceasefire was announced and PoK came into being. Had there been no truce, PoK would have been part of Bharat," said Shah. Shah's remarks on Nehru triggered an Opposition uproar and a walkout but they returned later. "So much land of this country was lost, it was a historic blunder," the home minister added.

Shah said in a way, three wars had happened in Kashmir. Pakistan attacked Kashmir in 1947. "A total of 41,844 families were displaced during three wars in 1947, 1965 and 1969. This bill is an attempt to give rights to those people, to give representation to those people," he said.

CM orders probe into Arjuna's death

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Wednesday directed the forest department to conduct an investigation into the death of Arjuna, the elephant which carried the Dasara howdah for eight years.

Arjuna died after it was attacked by a wild elephant in the forests of Hassan district on Monday.

Sources in the Chief Minister's Office said that Siddaramaiah directed the officials of the department to probe the allegations over the death of Arjuna.

The chief minister sought details regarding the death of Arjuna and asked the officials to complete the investigation at the earliest, the sources added.

Several experts and environmental activists have alleged that Arjuna suffered bullet injuries during the operation to capture the wild elephant. P5

No ration cards: Transgenders deprived of Siddu's guarantees

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

GANGA, 42, a transgender from Ballari, was delighted when the Gruha Lakshmi scheme was launched in the State in August. "With Rs 2,000 a month from Gruha Lakshmi and Rs 800 from Maithree (pension scheme for transgenders), I thought I could pay my house rent. But this did not happen," she said.

Ganga ran from pillar to post to get the benefits of these schemes, but in vain. Explaining her ordeal, Ganga said she went to an Internet centre to apply for the benefit under the Gruha Lakshmi scheme. "The government portal asked me to upload my ration card. That's when I applied for a ration card. But that portal has only two options -- male and female. I don't belong to these categories," she said.

Later, she visited the Food and Civil Supplies Department's office where the officials told her that a ration card cannot be issued to a single person. Her parents live in a separate house and they have a ration card. "I was thrown out of my house, I don't have a family now. Officials ruled out giving me a ration card," she said.

Earlier, there were many instances of all members of a single family getting individual ration cards in their names to avail more benefits. Such individual cards have been eliminated. This could be the reason for the department not issuing a single card, T Krishnappa of the Fair Price Shop Dealers' Association said.

Sheetal from Chikkamagaluru said without a ration card number one cannot apply for the Gruha Lakshmi scheme. In Chikkamagaluru, there are 350 transgenders, but only two have houses and they are getting the scheme's benefit as they live with their families.

According to Nisha Gulur, programme director of Sangama, there is a provision for the community members to get Transgender cards. Showing this card, transgenders can travel for free in government-run buses under the Shakti scheme. In Karnataka, only 2,000 members have Transgender cards. "Our NGO is helping transgenders to get such cards. The government should help the transgender community to enjoy the benefits of welfare schemes," Nisha said. The government should conduct a census of transgenders, she said.

Lakshmi from Hosapete said the Shakti scheme is not applicable to transgenders. "We have been given Trangender cards. But bus conductors say their ticketing machines have no provision to note the Transgender card numbers to issue free tickets," she added. P5

92 residential school students died by suicide in 5 yrs

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA @Belagavi

NINETY-two students have died in schools and colleges run by the Karnataka Residential Educational Institutions Society (KREIS) in the last five years. Of them, 29 committed suicide, according to the interim report for 2023-24 submitted by the Scheduled Castes and Tribes Welfare Committee of the State Legislature.

The report tabled in the Legislative Assembly on Wednesday stated that some students died under mysterious circumstances while returning home.

Stressing the need for detailed investigations into such deaths, the committee recommended to the government to seek information from parents whether the Directorate of Civil Rights Enforcement had conducted any investigation. If no investigation was conducted, the government should initiate action as per law, it stated.

The committee also recommended to the government to hold special counselling sessions for students, parents and teachers to prevent such suicide cases.

The committee favoured setting up a system to ensure proper utilisation and evaluation of funds meant for the development of SCs and STs. A sum of Rs 2.5 lakh crore has been spent on 1.8 crore SCs and STs under the Karnataka Scheduled Castes Sub-Plan and Tribal Sub-Plan (Planning, Allocation and Utilisation of Financial Resources) Act since 2013. The Act mandates spending 24.5% of the State's budget on SCs and STs.

Stressing the need to know whether the benefits reached these communities, the committee stated that the government should evolve a mechanism for the purpose.

For these Ballari girl students, theatre is their paatshala

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @Ballari

ONCE a film theatre is now a government residential school for girls at Kurugodu town in Ballari district.

The Backward Classes Welfare Department started the residential school from Classes 6 to 10 three years ago. The residential school has 226 girls.

Earlier, the school was run from a small building. When the number of students increased, the school management committee started looking for a big building.

The members of the committee finally zeroed in on the film theatre which was closed five years ago.

Though the committee identified a site to construct a school building, no help came from the government, some teachers of the school alleged.

Children at the government residential school have been learning and staying at the film theatre in Kurugodu town for the last three years | EXPRESS

Basavaraj M, a social activist and resident of Kurugodu, said the children are forced to reside and study in the old film theatre.

Earlier, the school was run from a small old building. When the students' parents staged a protest, they were promised that the school would be shifted to a new building. But instead of moving to a new building, the committee members chose the old theatre.

"The government is paying Rs 1.20 lakh a year as rent to the owner of the theatre. Two or three classes are held simultaneously, causing confusion among the students. There is no playground and students play near the main road," he said.

Basavaraj said, "We gave several memorandums, but the officials concerned did nothing to shift the school to a big building. Some parents shifted their children to other schools."

A senior official from the department said four acres of land has been sanctioned to construct a school building on the outskirts of Kurugodu town.

An official from the Karnataka Residential Educational Institutional Society (KREIS) said that the school will have its own building soon.

SpiceJet from B'luru to Mumbai delayed by 14.5 hours

Twin reasons for delay- unavailabilty of equipment required for Boeing aircraft, shift hours of crew getting over

EPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

PASSENGERS of a SpiceJet flight from Bengaluru to Mumbai at the Kempegowda International Airport were furious on Wednesday after their flight was delayed by 14-and-a-half hours due to twin reasons -- unavailability of a critical equipment required for the flight to take off and the shift hours of the crew getting over.

Flight SG-385, which was to take off at 6 am from Terminal 1, finally flew at 8.30 pm from Bengaluru. SpiceJet was unable to tell how many took the delayed flight.

A video from inside the airport earlier in the day released on social media showed flyers surrounding the SpiceJet counter staff outside Gate No 15 and demanding answers when they realised that the flight would not depart anytime soon.

A source familiar with the incident said the specific-make Boeing 777-800 could carry a maximum of 189 passengers. "After the passengers boarded the flight and it was about to take off, it developed a technical issue and a specific part had to be replaced. Since the part was not available in Bengaluru and had to be transported from Mumbai, all passengers were made to alight. The part was flown here and fitted onto the aircraft. By the time it was done, the flight duty hours of the cabin crew had ended. They can only work up to a maximum of 10 hours in a shift and if they had taken off from Bengaluru, their duty hours would have ended when they were in the skies. No extra time can be done as the country's aviation regulator DGCA views them as a serious violations. Passengers could only be flown by the next shift crew and there was an additional delay, " a source said.

An airline spokesperson said, "SpiceJet Flight SG 385 scheduled to operate from Bengaluru to Mumbai today morning was grounded due to a technical issue. The departure time was revised as an important part of the aircraft had to be connected from Mumbai. However, by the time part arrived, the operating crew faced Flight Duty Time Limitations (FDTL) causing further delay to the flight. The aircraft is now serviceable and ready to depart. Safety of its passengers, crew and aircraft are paramount at SpiceJet."

HC tells govt to make policies less confusing

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DISMISSING a batch of petitions filed by contractors, challenging tender works valued at over Rs 1 crore, the Karnataka High Court advised the State Government to make policies that create lesser confusion, but benefit society.

Justice MI Arun said the conduct of the state in the entire proceedings cannot be appreciated and requires censure. "In one instance, the state government issued an order dated January 14, 2022, wherein they fixed the minimum value of tenders to be at a sum of Rs 1 crore. Subsequently, after the Chief Minister discussed with the President and office bearers of the Karnataka State Contractors' Association, the Finance Department issued a circular dated May 11, 2022, wherein it was decided that all contractual works shall be below a sum of Rs 1 crore on the ground that it will benefit small-time contractors. Therefore, no proper clarification is given and required government order is not issued, resulting in several writ petitions being filed before the court, which had the effect of stalling works," the court observed.

The court said that implementing policy decisions is within the purview of the executive, and it should make a policy that is less confusing and benefits society. The state government is advised to make policies that are not in conflict with each other, it added.

Youth voter registration campaign held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

DISTRICT Election Officer and Chief Commissioner Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Tushar Girinath stated that the future of our nation is in the hands of the youth. Everyone should be included in the voter list and should vote without fail in every election, he said.

Addressing college students after inaugurating the 'youth voter registration campaign' held at the Government First Class College in Vijayanagar, Girinath advised students to use their power to save democracy and utilise it effectively. He stated that booth-level officials will visit houses to add them to the voter list. He also said that registration can be done through the Voter HelpLine App.

Further, he said it is not Herculean to be included in the voter list but to cast valuable votes in every election is what matters. A teacher from the college informed BBMP officials that there are about 4,000 students in Vijayanagar Government First Class College and more than 1,000 voters are being registered.

End to flooding? Drain work at CV Raman Nagar nears completion

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@Bengaluru

TO permanently prevent the flooding of CV Raman Nagar and its surrounding areas, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) which had taken up construction of the 1.8 km stretch of SWD along with bridge work is expected to be completed in a month. Palike's Storm Water Drain Department had taken up the work worth Rs 2 crore.

CV Raman Nagar assembly MLA, S Raghu stated that the Storm Water Drain Department of BBMP had taken up new drain works when it rained heavily in Kaggadasapura, CV Raman Nagar Phase-2, Abbaiah Reddy Layout and surrounding areas. The heavy rain had also caused intense flooding but with the intervention of the department, a permanent solution has been assured to the same for the next three to four weeks.

"During heavy rain, water from upstream areas like NGEF, Pai Layout and CV Raman Nagar quarters used to gush into the existing SWD at Versova Layout, thus resulting in floods. The BBMP is taking up SWD works as part of the project and a 25-foot bridge over SWD at Versova Layout will be built.

Relief to residents

The completion of the same will relieve residents from Kaggadasapura, CV Raman Nagar Phase-2 and surrounding areas," stated Raghu.

As per SWD department officials, earlier due to only one side drain, these areas used to flood. During Bomma's tenure in 2022, grants of over 2.25 crores were given under the 'Nava Nagarothana' to build a new SWD measuring 2.5 metres in width and 1.8 km long. "The work has come to an end, with hardly 60 metres is pending. We are now working on a 25-foot new bridge work over SWD at Versova Layout as the old one has become weak. In a matter of one month, we will be completing both SWD and bridge work," assured an official from BBMP.

"We have almost completed the construction of new SWD and hardly 60 metres of length is pending. We are now working on a 25-foot new bridge work over SWD at Versova Layout as the old one has become weak. In a matter of one month, we will be completing both SWD and bridge work," said an official from BBMP.

BMTC yet to implement common mobility card

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WHILE the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) has introduced the National Common Mobility Card (NCMC), Bengaluru Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) is yet to take significant steps in this regard. The implementation of the same is still being discussed and far from being a reality.

"BMTC and the Metro should be integrated and not be competitors. They should compliment each other. For example, it was heartening to see that the Metro was extended till Whitefield. It was the citizens of the area who created awareness about the extension and thereby pressured BMTC to start the feeder bus services. It is the combination of feeder buses and the Metro services that will solve congestion issues in Bengaluru," said BMRCL MD Anjum Pervez at the recently concluded Bengaluru Tech Summit on the ways to reduce congestion in the city.

"We plan to introduce bike taxis in Metro Stations. The primary concern is for the public to use these multi-modal transport services to make their travel seamless. We should have one travel card for the entire nation. It will be gradually passed on to other sectors. Seamless travel through autos, cabs, buses and Metro should be achieved and the same is possible if there is integration," Pervez stated.

However, sources from the BMTC revealed that the integration of NCMC with the bus corporation is still in the discussion stage and the bus corporation has not taken any significant steps in making it a reality.

25% of BMTC buses to be electric soon

Belagavi: About 25 % buses running in Bengaluru city will be electric soon, said Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy on Wednesday. Answering to a query by member HS Gopinath in the legislative council, the Minister stated that 90 electric buses were handed over to the Bengaluru Metropolitan Transportation Corporation (BMTC) under the Smart City project. 399 new electric buses have been purchased, with plans to procure 921 new electric buses soon in place. Moreover, 15 charging stations have also been set up in different parts of Bengaluru to charge the buses. The construction of these charging stations is in progress. "We plan to run 25 % of electric buses. About 1,500 electric buses will run in Bengaluru city in a few months," he assured.

TBM Tunga sees breakthrough, tunnelling to be completed by June

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER tunnelling for 401 days from the Venkateshpura Metro station, Bengaluru Metro's Tunnel Boring Machine (TBM) 'Tunga' had its breakthrough on Wednesday at Kadugondanahalli (KG Halli) Metro station on Wednesday around 11.15 am. It completed tunnelling a distance of 1,184.4 metres. With just two out of the nine TBMs yet to be completed, tunnelling for the entire underground network is likely to be concluded by June 2024.

Tunga TBM had a breakthrough at KG Halli Station in Bengaluru | EXPRESS

An official release said, "With this breakthrough, a total of 89.7% of the underground corridor has been completed- 18,832.3 metres out of 20,992 metres."

The TBMs are building the 13.76-km underground corridor from Diary Circle to Nagawara, which is part of the Reach-6 line from Kalena Agrahara to Nagawara.

Giving details, a senior BMRCL official told TNIE, "This is the second drive of Tunga. In its first drive, it had tunnelled 1,066.88 metres from Venkateshpura station (South) to Shaadi Mahal. It was lifted from the shaft and brought to the North end. For its third drive, it will tunnel 939 metres from KG Halli to Nagawara. The tunnelling is expected to be completed by the end of May."

When asked about the challenges faced, the official said the twin challenges included, the mixed ground and the tunnelling below the railway line near KG Halli.

The last TBM on its journey, 'Bhadra' is tunnelling parallel to it. "It has completed its first leg and is drilling its second leg on the same stretch just completed by Tunga. It will complete its third leg by June next year. The geology of Bengaluru is making it tough too."

07th December: Thursday is named after the Scandinavian god Thor, god of thunder. Actually in India, as in ancient Greece and Rome, the day is linked to the generous planet Brihaspati, or Jupiter. This is why today is often thought to be optimistic, hopeful, and generally a good time to launch new enterprises.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)

You have a tough choice to make, perhaps one that affects you and you alone as much as other people. Whichever side of the fence you come down on, you will open yourself up for a set of very interesting personal experiences. It's also time to take a sober look at a couple of suggestions that you've been treating rather frivolously.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)

We have to face the fact that you may not be affected by current circumstances in the same way as other people. It's possible, therefore, that you'll have to watch while partners take the limelight, but not for long. The advantage is that you could be left in peace to get on with your own schemes.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)

Someone is enchanting you. But, from their point of view, they may be more under your spell than you are under theirs. Whatever the truth of the matter, it seems certain that a meeting of minds is inevitable. And, out of that, could come a new, solid commitment.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)

You may be on tenterhooks. The obvious response to your concerns is 'relax, it might never happen'. You may find this unsympa-thetic but then, in more ways than one, you have been here before, haven't you? In fact, and here's a strange twist, what you're thinking about might already have happened - without your noticing!

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)

It should be particularly easy to express yourself at the moment. Even for those who are not interested in what you have to say, your views will eventually prove to be deeply pertinent, prophetic even. In general, though, you can begin to wind down the pressure in a number of areas.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

You are probably spending far too much, not to mention thinking about money more than is really necessary. After a momentary lapse, you may come to realise that your security relies more on emotional contentment than the quantity of coins in your pocket.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Today's planetary formation is like a sort of small birthday shared by everyone born under your sign all at the same time. After a period of contemplation, work out what your top priority is and make a personal wish. Implement whatever you decide without delay.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Forget the real world - it's time for some heavy day-dreaming. If you have chores and responsibilities you really can't shelve, then make whatever time for yourself you can. In love, play it cool - but don't be too fussy. And don't pretend that feelings don't matter!

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

Your charms are definitely coming to the fore again, which will be very useful as far as your long-term interests are concerned. One thing I would say is that you must be prepared to lay out some cash up front if you are pursuing important schemes.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

There is no reason for any unpleasantness, so don't allow yourself to be easily provoked. Authority needs to be respected and you, in your turn, must exercise power with dignity. There'll be moments when you have to stand back and let partners take first place - it's all in the timing.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Although you, and people around you, may be rather edgy, you need to be making stalwart resolutions about where you are going, and how. Travel influences are exceptionally strong, so take the opportunity to develop all overseas and long-distance contacts.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)

It is inevitable that money will loom large in your consciousness. Some may pick up bargains. Others will make a smart, long-term investment. But remember that if you do have to spend extra cash, it should be on items you need rather than

Koppal police have arrested two persons in connection with the attack on an elderly man in Gangavati town last week. Hussain Sab, 65, was reportedly attacked by the arrested duo when the victim was on his way home. According to the FIR, the accused beat up the elderly man, forced him to chant 'Jai Shri Ram' and also burnt his beard. On Wednesday, the police arrested Sagar Kalki (26) and Narasappa Danakayar (30)

TECHIE GETS HIS THUMB REPLACED WITH TOE AFTER CRACKER INJURY

Three months after three surgeries, he is able to write, type, pick up small objects

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A fun-filled day ended badly for an IT professional hailing from Chikkamagaluru as a firecracker injury resulted in the complete loss of his thumb. His index and middle fingers too were ripped along with his thumb, compromising the ring finger's circulation which would have resulted in complete disability of his dominant hand.

The incident occurred in April this year, when Rahul (name changed), returned from Bengaluru to his hometown. Firecrackers misfired causing him a severe injury. Though he was immediately taken to a local hospital, the doctors said the injuries could result in permanent disability of his hand.

Rahul was brought to Bengaluru for further treatment, and doctors here gave him some hope, saying he could be treated, but will have to undergo three surgeries, including a major one. The treating doctors at Apollo Hospital, Seshadripuram, explained that a complete loss of thumb accounts for 30-40 per cent disability and complete loss of index and partial loss of middle finger accounts for 60-70 per cent disability of his dominant hand.

The final surgery was performed three months ago, and his second toe of the foot was transferred to the right hand to replace his thumb. This is a major microsurgery, where the toe with the bone, skin, tendons, artery, vein and nerves are harvested and transferred to the hand. This surgery will enable him to use his right hand as earlier, though the appearance may not be the same as a normal hand.

It has been six weeks since the last stage of the surgery and Rahul has started using his hand for light activities like writing, typing and picking up objects. Eventually, he will be able to lead a normal life.

Auto driver hacked to death by armed men

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A gang of seven to eight armed assailants have murdered an autorickshaw driver in full public view in Byatarayanapura police station limits on Tuesday night. The victim's wedding with his girlfriend was in a few days. The Byatarayanapura police have registered a case.

The victim has been identified as Arun, 24, a resident of MCTC Quarters in Byataryanapura. He was standing with his friend in Timber Layout when the accused who were on two-wheelers attacked him with lethal weapons and killed him on the spot. The friend was unable to help the victim from the accused. He then informed the matter to the police after the accused left. The police suspect that the murder must be personal as the victim had no criminal history.

DK Shivakumar case: K'taka HC to hear Yatnal's plea on December 15

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court will on December 15 hear the maintainability of the writ petition filed by Vijayapura City BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal, questioning the Congress-led state government's decision to withdraw sanction granted by the previous BJP state government to prosecute Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar in a disproportionate assets case.

Justice M Nagaprasanna fixed the date for the hearing after Yatnal's counsel mentioned the petition on Wednesday, as the petitioner Yatnal is not the aggrieved party to question the state government's order dated November 28, 2023.

Yatnal challenged the legality of withdrawing the sanction given to the Central Bureau of Investigation to prosecute Shivakumar.

He further alleged that the impugned order passed by the state government after the decision taken in the cabinet is tailor-made to suit Shivakumar, who is also part of the same cabinet.

Murder attempt on attempt to murder suspect

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A gruesome murder attempt has been made on a 23-year-old suspect in an attempt to murder case in Mahalakshmipuram area. The attempt was made just for a Rs 2,500 mobile phone.

The accused waited for the victim for almost two years and attacked him after he came out of the jail. The accused and the victim were friends.

The accused had sold the victim's phone and the latter had attacked him. The victim then went to jail in another murder case. The Mahalakshmipuram police have registered a case.

The victim has been identified as N Girish, a resident of Kurubarahalli in Mahalakshmipuram. The complaint against Charan and others was filed on Sunday evening.

The victim, a porter, came out of jail on bail on November 26.

Girish had fought with Charan over the mobile phone. On the day of the incident, Girish was returning home from work when he was attacked by Charan and his friends.

Girish is undergoing treatment in a hospital on Magadi Road. Further investigations are on.

Missing 9-yr-old boy found dead in quarry pit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A nine-year-old boy, who had gone missing since Tuesday afternoon, was found dead a day later. The body was found in a quarry filled with rain water. The boy has been identified as Nikhil Mondal, a resident of Neyge Colony near Kudlu Gate under Bommanahalli Police Station limits.

The family hails from Kolkata and are staying in the city for the last three years. Nikhil was a Class 2 student studying in a government school. The boy's body was found just 500 meters away from his house. The boy's father is a food delivery agent. The South East division police have registered a case.

The boy reportedly went missing at 2 pm on Tuesday. The boy's body was found at 3 pm on Wednesday after it surfaced. Efforts were made by the residents to search for the boy and the news was also shared on social media seeking information about the missing boy.

Nikhil has a five-year-old brother. The police suspect that the boy must have entered the pit to swim.

Unable to swim in the deep pit, it is suspected that he reportedly drowned. The police are also checking if there is any foul play behind the death. A case of unnatural death has been registered by the police.

Yatnal calls cleric terror sympathiser, questions CM sharing stage with him

Cleric Sayed Tanveer Peera Hashmi denies allegation, challenges MLA to prove it

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru/ Vijayapura

FORMER Union Minister and BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal has made serious allegations against Islamic cleric Sayed Tanveer Peera Hashmi of Vijayapura by calling him "an ISIS supporter and terrorist sympathiser" and demanded the Union Government to order a probe. The BJP leader also accused Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah of sharing the dais with the "terrorist sympathiser." Hashmi, however, rubbished the allegations.

Yatnal, a former union minister, took to 'X' to make the allegations and wrote to Union Home Minister Amit Shah demanding a probe by Central agencies. "Chief Minister Siddaramaiah shared the dais with ISIS supporters and terror sympathisers," the BJP leader said. He posted photographs of the CM attending Muslim religious leaders' meeting in Hubballi and also photographs of Hashmi, which Yatnal claimed were taken in the Middle East. Yatnal alleged that the persons seen with Hashmi in those photographs were terror sympathisers.

"Tanveer has met CM Siddaramaiah on several occasions. Does CM Siddaramaiah know the background of this terror sympathiser?" the BJP leader added. Yatnal said he is not scared of anything and will continue to fight.

In his letter to Shah, Yatnaal alleged that he has "received credible information suggesting that Tanveer Peera is bringing funds from Muslim countries with the intention of creating unrest in our nation."

Hashmi rubbished the BJP leader's allegations. "He (Yatnal) has alleged that I have links with ISIS. I challenge him to prove the allegations within eight days. If he proves it, then, I will leave India forever. If his allegations are not proven, Yatnal should go to Pakistan forever," he retorted. Asserting that he has dedicated his life to condemning and protesting against any sort of terrorism, he said that he and his organisations have been campaigning against terrorism.

Referring to the photos being shared by Yatnal where Hashmi is seen with some foreigners, Hashmi claimed that the pictures are a decade old when he had gone to Iraq to pay his obeisance to the shrine of Saint Mehboob Subhani. "During my visit, I met the chief priest Sayed Khalif Jilani. His security officer, which was provided by the Iraqi government itself, is also seen in the picture," he explained. Syed Tajuddin Qadri, the organiser of the conference in Hubballi termed the allegations as baseless. If the BJP leader has any evidence he should present it to police instead of making such allegations, he said.

BJP protests CM's remark on funds to minorities

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA
@ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah's assurance to minority communities that allocation for their welfare would be increased to Rs 10,000 crore in future budgets rocked the Assembly on Wednesday with BJP members saying that such assurances, while the House is in session, is against the norm. While they demanded that the chief minister withdraw his statement, the government refused, leading to BJP members walking out of the House.

Referring to media reports on the CM's remark in Hubballi recently, BJP member Sunil Kumar said it is not fair of Siddaramaiah to make any announcement while the session was under way. "Siddaramaiah has assured Muslims that the government will allocate Rs 10,000 crore. We are not against the government sanctioning funds to any community, but averse to making such announcements outside the House," he said. Objecting to his statement, ruling party members said the CM has not given any such assurance. Ministers Priyank Kharge, Dinesh Gundu Rao and Shivaraj Tangadagi led the attack on opposition members, resulting in a war of words and pandemonium for a while.

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil commented that the CM had only said the government allocates Rs 3,000-4,000 crore in the budget and it would be increased to Rs 10,000 crore in phases in future budgets. "Siddaramaih did not say funds would be increased immediately. The issue raised by BJP members cannot be considered as per House rules," he added.

Not convinced, BJP members continued to protest. Assembly opposition leader R Ashoka said the government does not have money to compensate farmers, but is promising Rs 10,000 crore to minorities. "If farmers are forgotten, their curse will not let the government complete its term. The chief minister should withdraw his statement and tender an apology for dishonouring the House," he demanded.

While Congress members tried to disrupt him, Ashoka said, "If you disturb me, you should be aware that the leader of the House also speaks in the House. We also have 85 members and have the capacity to disturb his address too."

Congress members took serious objection and urged the Speaker to expunge his statement. They also demanded an apology from Ashoka. As arguments continued, Ashoka walked out of the House.

RSS refutes Goolihatti's charges, says it's open for all

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA unit of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) has rubbished former MLA Goolihatti Shekar's allegation that he was denied entry into Dr Hedgewar memorial in Nagpur since he is a Dalit.

RSS Karnataka, in a press statement, said thousands of people visit the memorial every day, irrespective of their caste. "There is no question of denying entry either to the RSS office or the memorial. RSS is open for all," N Thippeswamy, south central zone, Kshetriya Kaaryavaha, RSS, said.

The MLA's allegation is about an incident that occurred four months prior to the May 10 Assembly polls, he said. "Why didn't he raise this issue then," he asked.

Meanwhile, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said BJP and RSS not just oppose Muslims, but also Dalits. "Though they say all are equal, they have kept Dalits far," the CM said. "I repeat... till such time untouchability exists, reservation is needed. It is a strong weapon to eradicate casteism," he said.

Thoughts of BR Ambedkar, and not Savarkar, will safeguard people like Goolihatti. No one from backward classes has been included in the RSS top posts, Siddaramaiah said.

Meanwhile in Belagavi, BJP leaders were reluctant to comment on the issue.

BJP state president BY Vijayendra, Leader of Opposition R Ashoka and former home minister Araga Jnanendra refused to comment when questioned about the issue outside Suvarna Vidhana Soudha on Wednesday.

Vijayendra said he did not have any information about the incident.

BILL MOOTS ₹10CR FINE, 10 YR JAIL TERM TO CURB EXAM MALPRACTICE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

THE State Government on Wednesday tabled two more Bills — The Karnataka Goods and Services Tax (Second Amendment) Bill, 2023 and The Karnataka Public Examination (Measures for Prevention of Corruption and Unfair Means in Recruitment) Bill, 2023.

The Karnataka Goods and Services Tax (Second Amendment) Bill has been introduced for imposition of tax on casinos, horse racing and online gaming and making it liable to criminal action against those who violate the law. Meanwhile, the government has clarified that the proposed amendment was not prohibiting, restricting or regulating betting, casino, gambling, lottery or online gaming.

The Karnataka Public Examination (Measures for Prevention of Corruption and Unfair Means in Recruitment) Bill has been proposed to provide for effective measures to prevent and curb the offences of leakage of question papers and use of unfair means at public examinations for recruitment to any post under the State Government, including autonomous bodies, authorities, boards or corporation. The new law has strict provisions of punishment up to 10 years and penalties in the form of fines up to Rs 10 crore as well as attachment and confiscation of property and also recommends setting up a designated court for the trial of such offences.

CM: Spl grants of ₹25 cr will for each segment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

SPECIAL grants of Rs 25 crore will be released to each constituency this year to add pace to development, said Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, addressing party MLAs at the Congress Legislative Party (CLP) meeting here on Wednesday.

The Chief Minister made the announcement to pacify several disgruntled MLAs, who had expressed unhappiness over lack of funds to develop their constituencies. The chief minister's announcement brought cheer to them.

He appealed to the MLAs not to demand more funds other than the special funds to be released shortly. Speaking about guarantee schemes, Siddaramaiah said they helped the party win the elections comfortably.

Several MLAs complained that the ministers were not responding properly and appealed to the chief minister to warn them.

Will drag BJP leaders to court, says Priyank

ENS @Belagavi

RDPR Minister Priyank Kharge on Wednesday said he will drag BJP leaders, including state party chief BY Vijayendra and Leader of Opposition in the Assembly R Ashoka, to the court over what he called false allegations made against him in connection with a complaint filed by Kalaburagi BJP leader Manikant Rathod alleging that the minister was planning to murder him.

Saying that he is hurt and his credibility is at stake due to constant verbal attacks by the BJP leaders, Priyank said that investigation has found that the complainant's allegations were far from the truth.

Priyank defeated Rathod from Chittapur in this year's Assembly elections. "This one complaint by the Chittapur BJP candidate has put me in a tight spot. I was at the receiving end from almost all the big BJP leaders — right from state president Vijayaendra to R Ashoka. As the investigation now is singing a different tune, I will not spare anyone. I will file a criminal defamation case against them. Don't I have credibility? I am not here to listen to all this," he told reporters.

Rathod had alleged that he was attacked by miscreants while he was on his way to Kalaburagi from his farm in Malgatti village on November 19, 2023.

"BJP leaders are frustrated because they are not finding anything against the State Government and are indulging in such dramas. They did not even cross-check whether it was true or false and just jumped to his (Rathod's) defence. This person has 22 cases of theft, cheating and other offences against him and has even served a year's sentence. I was waiting for the probe to be completed, which has proved that the complaint is false and the complainant was not present in Malgatti at that time," Priyank said.

Priyank said he would take action only after holding consultations with party leaders.

Zameer not attending Council intentionally: Oppn

BELAGAVI: More than one hour of Council proceedings were disrupted on Wednesday over a discussion on the absence of Wakf, Housing and Minority Welfare Minister BZ Zameer Ahmed Khan. The Opposition alleged that the minister has no respect for the House. Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti asked ruling party leader Bosaraju to tell Zameer to at least show his face in the council. Opposition members Kota Srinivas Poojary, Narayanswamy, Tejaswini Gowda and Sunil Kumar alleged that Zameer is not attending the Council as he has to answer their questions. Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda, quoting from the law book, said ministers need not attend the session when they are busy with public life. Horatti then showed the minister's leave letter submitted before the session.

Govt to release ₹2,000 to each farmer: Minister

BELAGAVI: Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda informed the Council on Wednesday that the State Government has decided to release Rs 2,000 compensation as first installment in a week to the farmers for crop loss due to drought. A series of memorandums has been submitted to the Union Government to release Rs 18,200 crore compensation for the crop loss. "Once we get some funds, more compensation will be credited directly into the accounts of farmers. There are plans to give around Rs 4,000 crore compensation to farmers," he said. Replying to BJP member N Ravi Kumar, the minister said, "To prevent shortage of fodder to cattle in summer, fodder seed kits worth Rs 20 crore have been purchased and distributed among farmers."

Chaos in Assembly over stabbing of BJP leader

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

THE Assembly on Wednesday witnessed chaotic scenes during the Zero Hour over the issue of stabbing of BJP leader Prithvi Singh in Belagavi recently.

After 2 hours of protest and verbal duel between both the Ruling and Opposition members over the issue, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah informed the House that Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara will answer the question raised by BJP MLA BY Vijayendra.

CM Siddaramaiah makes a point in the Assembly on Wednesday | EXPRESS

Raising the issue, Vijayendra, who is also state BJP chief, said the State Government took the stabbing lightly and the sections under which an FIR was filed were not serious. He demanded the inclusion of IPC Sections 397 and 398 against the accused in the FIR, taking serious cognisance of the offence. The police on Tuesday filed an FIR against Congress MLC Channaraj Hattiholi and two of his associates.

He said the incident of stabbing occurred on the first day of the winter session of the legislature and the CM who was present in Belagavi should consider it seriously and ensure stringent punishment to the guilty. A verbal duel took place between both sides after the BJP MLAs, including Dr CN Ashwath Narayan, R Ashoka, Araga Jnanendra and Vijayendra, insisted that the government reply to the House immediately.

The BJP MLAs rushed to the well of the House in protest after the CM said that Parameshwara would reply on Thursday. Assembly Speaker UT Khader appealed to the BJP MLAs to exercise restraint and said that they would have to wait for Parameshwara to reply. He hit out at the protesting MLAs, alleging that they were doing it to get their agenda fulfilled. The MLAs staged a dharna shouting slogans against the government in the well of the House, and eventually, Khader adjourned the House for 30 minutes.

Jumping ship? Somanna holds rally at Siddaganga Mutt along with Cong leaders

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Tumakuru

BJP leader V Somanna, a Veerashaiva-Lingayat leader, who is sulking over the appointment of former chief minister B S Yediyurappa's son BY Vijayendra as BJP state president, held a rally in the company of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's cabinet colleagues at Siddaganga Mutt on Wednesday in a bid to prove his mettle to the BJP high command as the community's important leader.

Former minister V Somanna, Sri Siddalinga Swami of Siddaganga Mutt, Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara, Cooperation Minister KN Rajanna and others at the inauguration of Guru Bhavana at Siddaganga Mutt in Tumakuru on Wednesday

Sources said the rally was to prepare the ground for Somanna to contest the next Lok Sabha elections and he is eyeing the Tumakuru Lok Sabha constituency. Congress too is trying to woo Somanna as it does not have a strong candidate from the constituency.

"The BJP high command had given me an appointment on November 30, but I could not go. The truth is that despite being eligible, I missed out an opportunity. I have come to the guru and expressed my pain. I will wait for another two or three days and speak out," he told reporters after inaugurating the Guru Bhavana, which he built through a trust headed by his wife Shylaja.

Somanna claimed he cannot be compared with others (Vijayendra) when it comes to the relationship with the Mutt, as he had organised several events decades ago. "These days, some dogs and foxes have started interfering (in Mutt's affair)," he remarked. He asserted that he is not discouraged by his defeats in the Assembly elections, and still has 15-20 years of politics in him.

Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara said Sommanna did not decide when Congress senior leader Sonia Gandhi had agreed to make him KPCC president. Cooperation Minister KN Rajanna too was present.

Tumakuru BJP MP GS Basavaraju, a former Congress leader, said Somanna helped him win against JDS patriarch HD Deve Gowda in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls. Basavaraju, who is 86 years old, is not likely to contest the next Lok Sabha elections and declared Somanna as his successor.

REVANTH TO TAKE OATH WITH 3 DyCMs, MINISTERS

Calls on Gandhis, AICC president in Delhi; Swearing-in today

Telangana Chief Minister-designate A Revanth Reddy invites Congress MP Rahul Gandhi for his swearing-in cermony, in New Delhi on Wednesday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hyderabad

TPCC chief A Revanth Reddy will take oath as the second chief minister of Telangana at 1.04 pm at the LB Stadium in Hyderabad on Thursday, along with some members of his Council of Ministers.

While the exact number of ministers who will be sworn in was not disclosed, it is being speculated that three deputy chief ministers and three to five other leaders will take the oath of office and secrecy along with Revanth. It is also being speculated that the CLP leader in the second Assembly, Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, will be one of the deputy chief ministers. However, there was no official confirmation of the names or the number of ministers to take oath till 9 pm on Wednesday.

During the course of the day, the aspirants for the Cabinet posts, including Vikramarka and D Sridhar Babu, held meetings with AICC observer and Karnataka Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and aired their concerns. Other aspirants like Shabbir Ali, K Premsagar Rao, Malreddy Ranga Reddy, and P Sudharshan Reddy confabulated with the senior AICC leaders in Delhi.

On his part, Revanth too had a busy day, meeting top AICC leaders, including members of the Gandhi family, and AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge and inviting them to attend the swearing-in ceremony.

The political developments during the day saw Revanth, who was on his way to the airport to catch his flight back to Hyderabad being called back by the AICC leadership to further discuss the portfolios to be allotted to the senior leaders who had thrown their hats in the ring for the coveted chief minister's post. Although the AICC leaders initially made suggestions with regard to the incorporation of the council of ministers, they summoned Revnath again to discuss last-minute changes.

Subsequently, AICC Telangana in-charge Manikrao Thakre convened a meeting with Revanth in Maharashtra Bhavan in Delhi suggesting the changes following the requests from the aspirants. Following this, Revanth caught the evening flight and returned to Hyderabad.

New CM may sign guarantees file as first act

B KARTHEEK @ Hyderabad

A Revanth Reddy is likely to affix his first signature as Telangana chief minister to files pertaining to providing financial benefits such as pensions to the families of Telangana martyrs, implementation of the six guarantees, and providing employment to a differently-abled woman. It is also speculated that Revanth will sign the file on six guarantees first.

Revanth will be following the precedent set by the late Dr YS Rajasekhar Reddy in 2004 whose first signature as chief minister was on the file providing free power to farmers.

During the election campaign, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi promised that the six guarantees —Mahalakshmi scheme, Indiramma Indlu, Rythu Bharosa, Yuva Vikasam, Gruha Lakshmi and Cheyutha — will be implemented the day the Congress Cabinet takes office.

TOP LEADERS TO PARTICIPATE

Earlier in the day, when reporters asked Congress Parliamentary Party chairperson Sonia Gandhi whether she would be attending the swearing-in ceremony, she said "probably". Apart from Sonia Gandhi, Kharge, former AICC president Rahul Gandhi, AICC general secretaries Priyanka Gandhi and KC Venugopal, and Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah will be attending the ceremony.

An aerial view of the devastation wrought by Cyclone Michaung in Karapakkam in Chennai on Wednesday

Swathes of Chennai still under water

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

THE miseries wrought by Cyclone Michaung have yet to end for a significant part of Chennai, with swathes of localities in southern, northern and western parts of the city, spread across Tiruvallur, Kancheepuram and Chengalpattu districts still submerged on Wednesday. However, water had receded in some places and normalcy restored, especially in most of central Chennai. Suburban train have been reinstated while buses are operating on all routes but those that are waterlogged.

Chief Minister MK Stalin, who visited rain-affected parts for the second day, wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi about the damage caused by the cyclone and the need for a central team to arrive in TN soon and conduct a first-hand assessment of the damage. The PM had posted on X (formerly Twitter) that his thoughts and prayers are with those affected by the cyclone in TN, Andhra and Odisha. In response, Stalin said that lakhs of people have been impacted and requested an interim relief of ₹5060 crore for immediate restoration efforts. The CM has also deputed more ministers to oversee the rescue and relief operations.

Updating reporters, Chief Secretary Shiv Das Meena said 25,000 food packets were supplied to the rain-affected people in multi-storey buildings through helicopters. He mentioned the death toll had risen to nine, contrary to police statement on Tuesday that put the toll at 17. Stating that power had yet to be restored in only 4% of Chennai, he said 14 lakh litres of milk were distributed on Wednesday. Milk supply has been disrupted after a key production unit was inundated. Aside from the national and state disaster response forces, personnel from Navy, Army, Air Force as well as Coast Guard have joined the rescue efforts.

Meanwhile, over 60 hours after two men were trapped in a 55-foot trench filled with water, rescue operations continued in Velachery.

RAJNATH TO CONDUCT AERIAL SURVEY

Defence Minister Rajnath Singh will be undertaking an aerial survey of the rain-affected areas in Chennai and neighbouring districts on Thursday and will hold discussions with Chief Minister MK Stalin at the secretariat about the state government's requirements.

Karnataka to open 100 new hostels

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AS there is a demand for more hostels for children belonging to backward communities, the State Government is contemplating opening 100 new hostels to accommodate more students. As the problem is prevalent across Karnataka, Assembly Speaker UT Khader suggested to the government to draft a long-term plan to address the issue rather than going for a quick-fix solution.

Replying to Kundapur MLA Kiran Kumar Kodgi, Backward Classes Welfare Minister Shivaraj Tangadagi admitted that in the wake of increase in the number of admissions of students from OBC communities, the existing hostels were facing difficulties to accommodate them. It has also come to the notice of the department and he has also discussed it with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, he added.

Against this backdrop, the State Government was thinking of opening 100 more hostels, especially at educational hubs such as Mangaluru, Udupi and Dharwad, and other district headquarters. To facilitate students who have not got a hostel facility, they would be paid Rs 1,500 per month for 10 months under the VidyaSiri scheme as the government has allocated Rs 30 crore for the scheme. On opening the hostels in June itself with the commencement of the academic year, the minister said, it was delayed due to a change in the academic calendar in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Forest land valued over ₹20L crore encroached

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

FOREST lands valued at over Rs 20 lakh crore have been encroached in Kodagu, Chikkamagaluru, Shivamogga, Hassan and a few other districts in the state. In Bengaluru alone, over 2,000 acres have been encroached. The value of these lands runs into thousands of crores considering that the basic minimum price per acre is at least Rs 1 crore in the state capital. When contacted, Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre refused to comment. Asked if the extent of encroachment mentioned was right, he replied, "Yes."

Former Lokayukta Justice N Santosh Hegde said, "People in power try to encroach forest land either directly or through benamis. When forest officials try to retrieve the land and clear the encroachments, they resist and use power at their disposal to ward off these officers."

Sources said, "Encroachers, who are politically powerful, have not spared forest land even in states like Uttarakhand, Assam, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and Odisha, which have sizeable forest cover." Conservationist Akilesh Chilpi and former Wildlife Board member Joseph Hoover said, "Some of our leaders are using small landholders as shields to protect their own interests. As lawmakers, they should be custodians of law and set an example."

Dr Robert John, professor at the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research, Kolkata, said, "Forest land encroachment is a complex problem in India. It often results from unsettled rights, contested boundaries and environmental changes that can displace people."

In suspected honour killing, 19-year-old boy kills sister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Thoothukudi/Tirunelveli

IN a suspected case of 'honour' killing, a girl was murdered by her 19-year-old brother in front of their house in Tirunelveli district on Tuesday evening. The deceased has been identified as Thangathai (20), daughter of Aseer Pandian of Rajavallipuram, a labour contractor. The accused, Muthu, allegedly murdered his sister as she refused to break her relationship with one of her colleagues, who belonged to a Scheduled Caste (SC). The duo was working at a private company in Gangaikondan SIPCOT complex. Sources said Thangathai belonged to an MBC community.

"Her family had persuaded her several times to break her relationship with the colleague. However, she did not budge, and the couple eloped a few days ago. Based on a complaint from Thangathai's parents, Thalaiyuthu police traced her and sent her back home with her parents on Tuesday morning. Her parents had assured the police that they would not harass her. However, Muthu quarrelled with Thangathai throughout the day, and later killed her in a fit of rage," the sources said. Upon information, Thalaiyuthu police rushed to the spot and sent the body to Tirunelveli government medical college for postmortem. Muthu, who allegedly confessed to the crime, was arrested and the machete used for the crime was also seized. Tirunelveli Superintendent of Police Silambarasan told TNIE that an investigation is underway. Sections, including 302 of IPC, have been invoked against Muthu and he is the only suspect in the case, he added.

Experts want operation to catch jumbos stopped

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

EXPERTS and mahouts from elephant camps across Karnataka have demanded that the operation to capture and radio-collar wild elephants that stray into human habitats be stopped immediately. This is in the wake of the death of famed Dasara tusker Arjuna during an operation to capture a wild elephant in the forests of Hassan district a few days ago. The department has plans to capture and radio-collar at least seven more wild elephants in the next three months. With the death of Arjuna, the pressure on Abhimanyu, who also carries the Dasara howdah, and other tuskers will increase if they are made part of the operation to capture more wild elephants.

Experts have also demanded that camp elephants used in kumki operations and those performing Dasara duties be separated. Referring to Abhimanyu, a veterinarian said, "He was supposed to be used in the operation along with Arjuna in Hassan and Sakleshpur, but it was decided at the last minute to give him rest because of his injury. I insisted not to use Abhimanyu in the operation. If he was used, it would have been impossible for him to participate in the next Dasara procession. In Karnataka, while Dasara jamboo savari is a matter of prestige, the man-elephant conflict is a cause for concern. These elephants are caught between the two."

A mahout from the Balle camp, where Arjuna was housed, said the elephants are under stress and they need rest. They are either involved in operations to capture wild elephants or events such as Dasara. The mahout also questioned the competence of forest personnel and veterinarians. He also questioned the coordination between veterinarians and foresters, especially after the failed operation in Hassan's Yeslur range, where Arjuna died.

Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Kumar Pushkar said that it is difficult to keep Dasara and kumki elephants separate. The two require the best of tuskers like Arjuna and Abhimanyu. These two are the lead elephants. The department is making efforts to train other tuskers to perform this task.

The department is holding a workshop and meeting with staffers and veterinarians on the man-animal conflict.

TAMED ELEPHANTS, MAHOUTS RETURN WITH HEAVY HEART

The Forest Department has stopped the operation to tag rogue wild jumbos in Alur and Sakleshpur with radio collars for 10 days due to the death of Dasara elephant Arjuna. The Forest Department has decided to stop the elephant operation to give rest to other tamed elephants and mahouts who are upset and yet to come out of the shock after the death of Arjuna. Four elephants had taken part in the 10-day operation and were transported back to camp.

Forest dept rejects misfire claim, says Arjuna stepped on sharp piece of wood

BR UDAYA KUMAR @Hassan

THE death of famed Dasara elephant Arjuna in a tussle with a large tusker in rut during a special operation, gave rise to a host of speculations, including that he was a victim of a misfired bullet from a forester.

People from across the board contributed to different theories. However, the forest department refuted these theories Speaking to TNIE, Deputy Conservator of Forests Mohan Kumar, who was supervising the elephant operation to fix radio collars on rogue elephants, said that Arjuna was suffering from severe pain, owing to a major injury on his right foot.

The elephant was injured after stepping on a sharp piece of wood, while fighting with a rogue elephant. He fought fiersely, despite continuously bleeding.

Brushing aside the theory of misfire during the operation, he said that a forest official stood far away from the operation area and fired in the air to scare the rogue elephant away, when it instead intensified its charge at Arjuna.

The forest staff only carry a double-barrel gun for self-defence during such operations. The doctors didn't find any bullet injuries on any parts of the pachyderm's body during the postmortem, he added.

Action sought

Animal lovers had alleged that Arjuna was injured due to misfire, after a video surfaced in which Vinu – his handler -- reportedly stated that the elephant was injured in this manner during his confrontation with the rogue elephant.

The issue should be probed and action accordingly taken against the officials who took part in the operation, they demanded.

Man killed by tree branch during dad's last rites

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Jeypore

IN a cruel turn of events, a 27-year-old youth died after a tree branch fell on him while he was performing the last rites of his father at Kamata village within B. Singpur police limits under Borigumma block in Koraput district on Wednesday.

The deceased youth was identified as Benudhar Mandal (27) of Kamata village. Benudhar lived in Koraput town where he owned a food stall.

Sources said the youth's father Laxman Mandal (55), a weaver by profession, fell sick on Tuesday night. He was rushed to to SLN Medical College and Hospital. However, he succumbed while undergoing treatment.

Subsequently on Wednesday morning, Benudhar brought his father's body back to Kamata village for funeral. The youth and his family members took Laxman's body to the village cremation ground. When Benudhar went to collect wood for his father's last rites, the branch of a large tree fell on him.

The youth sustained grievous head injuries and was rushed to Borigumma community health centre. However, the doctor declared him brought dead.

Locals said the branch broke off the tree due to incessant rains that lashed the area since Tuesday night under the influence of cyclone Michaung.

As the news about the incident spread, a pall of gloom descended on Kamata village. Grieving villagers gathered at the cremation ground and performed the last rites of the father-son duo.

Police registered an unnatural death case in this connection. The district administration has directed the revenue officials of Borigumma to probe the incident.

LESSON FROM CHENNAI: GIVE BACK FLOOD PLAINS TO RIVERS

THE resilience of a city is gauged by its ability to bounce back quickly after a calamity. Chennai is back on its feet after the devastating cyclonic storm wreaked unparalleled havoc on it. But it still limps when it comes to evacuating people—thousands of them are still marooned by flood waters. However, the government's coordinating efforts in distributing food to the stranded and restoring electricity and telecom lines are laudable. Most importantly, fatalities are far fewer than in the 2015 floods.

Past floods have left a trail of destruction along the waterways of Adyar, Cooum, Kosasthalaiyar, Buckingham Canal and Pallikaranai Marshland. After the 2015 floods, the stormwater drainage system in the city was enhanced with financial support from the World Bank and connected to the Adyar, Cooum, and Kosasthalaiyar rivers, which ultimately empty into the bay. But they obviously cannot take in vast amounts of flood waters when the skies abruptly open up. Worse, their capacity has been compromised by fast-unfolding urbanisation. Indiscriminate construction across the city has also created obstacles for the natural flow of water. Chennai had already received good monsoon rains, leaving the groundwater levels healthy and blocking substantial absorption of flood water. In 2015, an artificial flood was created by the release of a huge amount of water overnight from the Chembarambakkam lake. This year, the government was cautious and released water in small quantities to avoid flooding the river banks. The rainfall this year was much more than in 2015, with Chennai receiving 43 cm in Meenambakkam and 44 cm in Perungudi on December 4. Further, the cyclone, which hovered on and near the city for a while, made it difficult for the rivers to empty into the bay.

A parliamentary standing committee report after the 2015 floods blamed the real estate mafia for illegal constructions and grabbing of water bodies and flood channels. The Flood Plain Zoning, a concept initiated by the state public works department then to regulate land use in flood plains, is gathering dust. Apparently, there is no data on the flood plain of Cooum or Adyar, and the boundaries of these rivers are yet to be marked. The government ought to take a serious look at urbanisation gobbling up large parts of flood plains and river beds, and initiate a sincere effort to retrieve them.

TELANGANA CONG NEEDS UNITY BEFORE 2024 POLLS

THE Congress victory in Telangana is nothing short of a tectonic shift in state politics. Some may point at the difference of just two percentage points in the vote shares of Bharat Rashtra Samithi and the Grand Old Party to claim that the latter's resurrection is not decisive. But politics is not all about precise arithmetic, though such metrics are useful in deconstructing the results. The Congress won decisively in the districts, sweeping aside the BRS even in its strongholds. But the Congress could not win even a single seat in Hyderabad and its surroundings, indicating a clear rural-urban divide.

The BRS under K Chandrasekhar Rao turned a blind eye to discontent outside the state capital. Much like his one-time colleague in TDP, N Chandrababu Naidu, KCR took the rural population, particularly the poor and farmers, for granted. With his son and former IT minister K T Rama Rao endearing himself to Hyderabadis, perhaps the BRS chief thought all was well—he ignored his legislators' arrogance and nepotism, and his government's gross failure in digitising land records, besides being oblivious to the adverse public opinion on his own conduct. Revanth Reddy, the state Congress chief chosen as the new chief minister, and his team have their task cut out. The six guarantees the Congress promised are not going to be easy to implement, adding an additional burden of over ₹50,000 crore on the state exchequer. Taking KCR's failures as a cautionary tale, the first Congress government in Telangana must keep in mind not only public expectation but also fiscal prudence.

The political fallout of the election could be unpredictable. With the Lok Sabha elections approaching fast, the state will be back in election mode soon again. The Congress will have an advantage, but it needs to be united and offer good governance to repeat its success. The BRS will find itself sandwiched between the Congress and the BJP. While many have opined that the saffron party lost steam in the run-up to the polls, we are of the view that it may have made a strategic retreat in the hope of forcing a hung assembly. It notched up eight seats despite a low-key campaign. The BJP is likely to go after the BRS on the liquor scam, among other things, making 2024 a three-cornered fight in several parts of the state.

QUICK TAKE

CARE FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED STUDENTS

THE government has reported that 13,626 students from the scheduled castes, scheduled tribes and other backward classes have dropped out of central universities, IITs and IIMs over the last five years. Most of these institutes have SC-ST student cells and liaison officers to address issues specific to students from underprivileged backgrounds. But none of these effectively address the humiliation these students often face in and out of classrooms. The earlier practice of holding remedial classes for these students has stopped at some of these institutes. The institutes need to restart those classes and run regular, compulsory training in sensitivity for all students and faculty.

Israel's genocide of Palestinians will likely push the world to seek a long-term solution to the conflict. India should lend its support in the spirit of Bandung

FOG OF WAR SHOULD CUE IN WORK FOR PEACE

MAKRAM KHOURY-MACHOOL

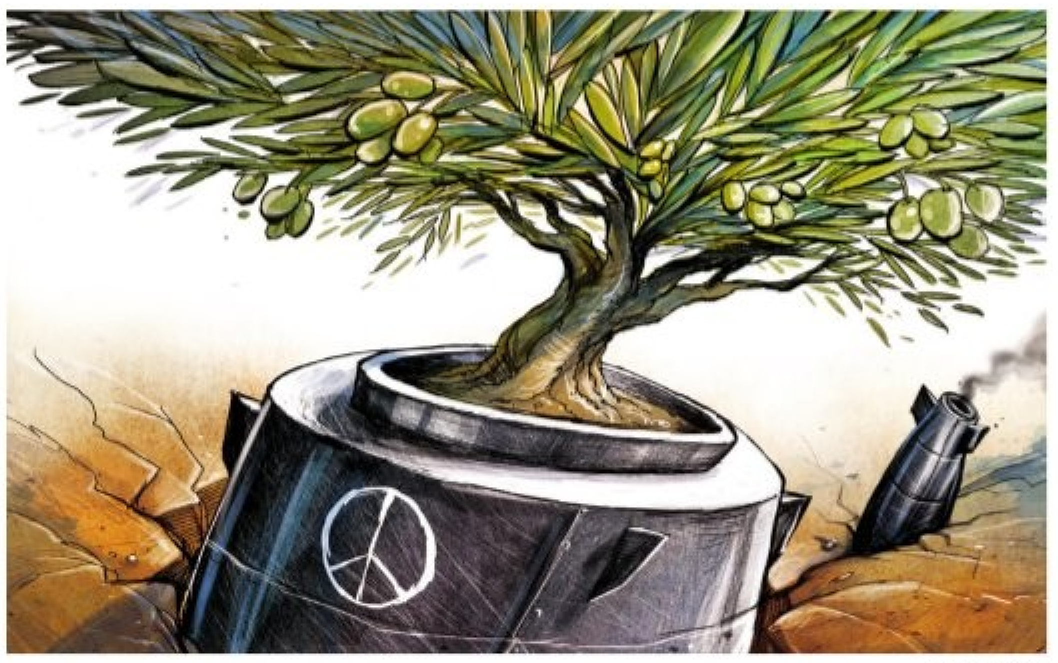
Founding Director, Cambridge Centre for Palestine Studies and European Centre for the Study of Extremism, UK



SOUMYADIP SINHA

WHETHER Netanyahu knew about the Palestinian resistance's plan to launch a substantial operation inside the 1948-occupied territories—now Israel—and allowed it to happen for self-serving calculations of political survival is negligible in the broader scheme of the confrontation between Israel as an occupying power and the Palestinians as an occupied, oppressed people since the Nakba of 1948.

It won't also make much difference whether during its genocidal war against the Palestinian people in the Gaza Strip, the occupying forces will be assassinating or capturing key resistance leaders from Hamas, Islamic Jihad, Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine or the Aqsa brigades. For as long as the Palestinians are subject to genocide, oppression, ethnic cleansing and apartheid, the spirit of resistance will persist for generations to come. This phenomenon is believed to have been absorbed by all the involved parties over the last two months.

Many would argue that whatever will be dealt with in 2024 will be all too familiar to what has been discussed at least since the UN Security Council resolution 242 of 1967 following Israel's occupation of eastern Palestine. Despite its crime against the Palestinian people, the 2023 Gaza genocide can and should only be seen as a big step towards some sort of Palestinian freedom, independence and peaceful solution.

After the ceasefire, there will be additional evaluation of the results on the ground. Several issues at the local, national, regional and international levels will resurface. The issue of Palestinian division—Fatah in Ramallah vs Hamas in Gaza—will be discussed. It is highly likely that one positive outcome of the Gaza genocide will be the end of the 16-year-long internal division, with one authority ruling both regions. This is directly linked to holding parliamentary and presidential elections in the occupied territories—with or without the full and internationally-recognised establishment of a Palestinian state.

Since an apartheid state is not a solution, a great deal of debate in the last three decades has focused on the format of the solution: one state (for both peoples), two states or a confederation.

The two-state solution, with a Palestinian state only on 22 percent of the historical Palestine, is being opposed by the growing population of Jewish settlers, which is nearing one million in the occupied West Bank and East Jerusalem. They are also not for the territorial linking of Gaza with the closest part of the West Bank, that is Al-Khalil or Hebron.

Despite the understandable negative debate about the viability of a two-state solution, work towards it supersedes any work done on any other solution. It has received verbal acceptance at the UN and from most of the international community.

From our longitudinal observation of the occupation of Palestine since the 1948 Nakba, we strongly believe that it would be too abominable for both sides to face such losses and traumas yet again. Hence, a ray of hope is seen for a peaceful outcome.

During such a crisis, those who can maintain a sanitised, cold-headed discussion will be thinking of the much loved 'window of opportunity' formula. The challenge is in rejecting the Israeli occupation—which, since an extremist Jewish criminal assassinated the then peacemaker Yitzhak Rabin in November 1995—has been led from one extreme to the horrendous current one by Benjamin Netanyahu.

In order to raise expectations for a peaceful solution, Israel ought to abandon its criminal tactics of the annihilation of Palestinians, which is now being openly expressed as a zero-sum game where Israelis wish to exterminate and expel as many Palestinians as possible.

After this war, only a win-win situation can be accepted in order to reach a calm and bloodless period, at least at this stage and until the 106-year-old conflict—which started with the Balfour Declaration on November 2, 1917—is satisfactorily resolved. There is a need for imagination, creativity and courage not to remain imprisoned by bloodshed and grief.

Not only does Palestinian independence have to integrate physical reconstruction as well as psychological rehabilitation, it also needs to include economic development for the nation-building process.

It is no secret that Netanyahu wouldn't have committed such a genocidal crime had he not received political cover and financial support from the US and its closest European allies. All these political actors are complicit with the crime. Now that global public opinion has robustly shifted towards the plight and rights of the Palestinian people, these supporters of the Israeli occupation should have the foresight to curb the aspiration for a 'Greater Biblical Israel'. They ought to be able to exercise pressure to make the Israeli leadership abandon its existing—in the theory and practice—expansionist plans.

Regionally, even the Arab regimes who accepted the occupation and signed the Abraham Accords to establish diplomatic and economic ties will most probably see that serving their own economic interests while ignoring Palestinian rights is both risky and unwise in the long run. The October 7 operation aimed to curb Saudi Arabia's normalisation with Israel.

The tendency of not abandoning Netanyahu's deceptive formula of 'Peace for peace' for 'Land for peace', which was suggested in the Arab peace plan of 2002, will broaden the spirit of Jabhat al-Muqawamah, or resistance front, in the Arab world and will harm the Gulf's economic interests and future projects. With a positive shift in the Iranian-Saudi relations brokered by China, warmer relations with Moscow, and expansion of BRICS, it is highly likely that the penny will drop after the Gaza war. Achieving détente would also necessitate the resurrection of the Quartet— European Union, Russia, UN and the US—established in 2002, which would mean direct involvement with Russia.

One big player missing thus far has been India, which as a formerly colonised state should make a comeback in the spirit of Bandung, because wise and elderly states and figures always argue that a peace process is preferable to war. India can certainly add weight to a peaceful resolution based on its decolonisation heritage. If peace is not the preferred track, then a regional war with some spillovers will be inevitable.

A RAW AND PRESENT DANGER

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

IN the short space of a few summer months, the Research & Analysis Wing, India's premier external spy agency, has been pretty much shown the door, with ill-concealed anger, in three countries of the Global North where it had been doing inordinately well: the US, Canada, and the UK.

The RAW debacle—the virtual dishonourable expatriation of the San Francisco station chief and the London deputy head of operations, the expulsion of its country chief in Ottawa, Pavan Rai, and the blocking of a replacement head for its Washington, DC office—is as big an indication of Global North displeasure with the incumbent Indian government as it gets. Not since the establishment of RAW—which has a near-mythic status in the country—in 1968, under the aegis of Indira Gandhi, has this happened. This means that today, the agency is shorn bald of representation in the two most important countries of North America with whom it had strenuously built up a working—and equitably transactional—relationship.

So, why hasn't this made the news in India, except in one online paper with no follow-up? There is dead silence on TV news channels and in the print media, as if it never happened. It would be tempting to explain it away by the fact that the assembly elections are just over and their results make for more immediate analysis. But this doesn't quite explain the radio silence.

In every sense, it's a path-changing event with a striking subtext: an august institution—RAW has had regional significance for more than half a century—brought low by its multidecadal idée fixe, Khalistan.

The expulsions ran parallel to but under the radar of Canada's accusation that the Indian government was complicit in the killing of Sikh Khalistani activist Hardeep Singh Nijjar in June and the targeting-for-assassination of a US-based US-Canadian dual citizen and Khalistani activist by what US prosecutors say is a hitman hired by a yet-unnamed New Delhi-based Indian security honcho.

A decade after RAW was set up in 1968, Afghanistan set up its intelligence agency, the Khadamat-e Aetla'at-e Dawlati or KhAD. RAW's main focus was on Pakistan and China, but KhAD was also monitoring the activities of Sikh militants in Pakistan's Federally Administered Tribal Areas. Pakistan's Inter-Services Intelligence established training camps for Khalistanis in Punjab and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. And thus was born RAW's implacable fascination with Khalistan.

In the mid-1980s, RAW established two covert groups: Counter Intelligence Team-X to target Pakistan and Counter Intelligence Team-J to focus on Khalistani groups. Both groups carried out operations inside Pakistan—what Indian journalist Praveen Swami called a "low-grade but steady campaign of bombings in major Pakistani cities, notably Karachi and Lahore".

WIKI COMMONS

RAW has a commendable history of half a century. But since 2015, it has faced setbacks in the UK, Germany, Canada and the US. The allegation on Hardeep Singh Nijjar's killing has shed light on the dark world of spookery

In 1997, citing "moral grounds"—principles that would seem laughably untenable today—the then prime minister, Inder Kumar Gujral, shut down both groups. It did not take long for both departments to be reconstituted, with even more secrecy woven in. In those years, Ajit Doval, the current National Security Adviser and the architect of India's spookery, had been the head of the commercial section in the Indian embassy in Islamabad, tasked with keeping an eye on Khalistanis and Sikh pilgrims who could be targeted by propaganda. He was then in the Intelligence Bureau. For a decade after his return to India, he concentrated on the Punjab crisis and went down the Khalistan rabbit hole.

This unsparing focus on Khalistan would be carried like a deadweight through the various chiefships of the Indian intelligence agencies, even as Khalistanism died out in India and survived only in small pockets of voluble disgruntlement among Sikh communities abroad, mostly in North America.

This inordinate grudgery, inexplicable to the pragmatic world of intelligence, would also earn RAW not inconsiderable vexation abroad. The agency has had particular frisson with Germany. In 2015, a German immigration officer working in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia was jailed for stealing government data to sell information to RAW on suspected Khalistani activists. In 2020, Germany ordered India to recall one RAW officer on deputation from the Indian Revenue Service. Taking aim at RAW's critical Frankfurt station, in 2019, a Frankfurt court sentenced to jail for 18 months a Sikh journalist who ran an ostensibly pro-Khalistan online news platform in Germany for spying on Kashmiri and Sikh secessionists. In 2020, the same court convicted to one-year imprisonment another Indian charged with providing information about leaders of the Sikh opposition and the Kashmiri movement in Germany to handlers working at the Indian consulate general in Frankfurt. Both confessed to having met RAW officials.

Aside from the 2015 case, the other transgressions took place under Samant Goel, who was RAW chief from June 2019 to June 2023. He had previously been station chief of the Europe desk and the London station head. In 2012, the UK's security service, MI5, and its secret intelligence service, MI6, had raised a stink about his trying to poach not only Khalistani confidential informants already in the pay of the British secret services but also using the London station to piggyback on British intelligence operations.

But what happened June 2023 onwards—and the consequent blowback from the US, UK and Canada—is unprecedented. Until now, there was no occasion where RAW was accused of carrying out extraterritorial assassinations in the West. What makes it worse is that these alleged assassinations were organised and implemented in nations not merely diplomatically and economically friendly with India but also joined at the hip in the dynamics of global security.

Unlike the CIA or MI6, RAW reports directly to the prime minister instead of the defence ministry. The RAW chief is officially designated secretary (research) in the Cabinet Secretariat, which is part of the Prime Minister's Office.

The question that these three countries have raised through these expulsions is about where the buck stops.

Oppn members demand discussion in Lower House before any decision on her expulsion

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

TMC MP Mahua Moitra at the Parliament House in New Delhi on Wednesday | PTI

THE report of the Ethics Committee on the expulsion of Trinamool Congress (TMC) member Mahua Moitra from the Lok Sabha is expected to be tabled in the House on Friday, according to Parliamentary sources.

As the winter session of the Parliament began on Monday, Opposition members demanded a discussion in the Lok Sabha on the report before any decision on her expulsion was taken. Opposition MPs had made the demand during the meeting of the Business Advisory Committee chaired by Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla to finalise agenda for the House.

The report was listed for presentation in the Lok Sabha on Monday but the agenda item was not taken up by the presiding officer.

Earlier, BSP MP Kunwar Danish Ali claimed that the report of the Ethics Committee in the 'cash-for-query' allegation against Moitra had a full paragraph that purportedly refers to his conduct during the panel's meetings. He urged the Speaker to get it deleted before its tabling in the House.

Ali is a member of the ethics panel. Citing rules, he wrote to Birla stating that the chairman of the committee is not empowered to mention in a committee report about any individual member or his conduct or the opinion expressed by the member or members in the committee meeting.

He also posted the letter on a micro-blogging site X, "Lok Sabha Ethics panel, while examining cash-for-query allegations, has gone beyond its remit to comment on my objections during the meeting. It seems by targeting me, a message is being sent that no member should speak out against the ruling party. This amounts to throttling oppn (opposition) voice."

The Lok Sabha's Ethics Committee, chaired by BJP member Vinod Sonkar, had adopted its report in a meeting on November 9, recommending Moitra's expulsion from the Lower House. The opposition members termed the report a 'fixed match' and said the complaint filed by BJP Lok Sabha member Nishikant Dubey, which the panel reviewed, was not supported by a 'shred of evidence'.

Moitra can be expelled only if the House votes in favour of the panel's recommendation.

GOVT SEEKS LS NOD TO SPEND ₹58.3K CR

The government on Wednesday sought Lok Sabha nod for a net additional spending of ₹58,378 crore in the current fiscal. The supplementary demands for grants include gross additional spending of over ₹1.29 lakh crore, which would be matched by savings of ₹70,968 crore. The proposal involves the net cash outgo aggregating to ₹58,378.21 crore.

DMK MP's REMARKS EXPUNGED

Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla has expunged the remarks made by DMK MP DNV Senthil Kumar in the House to describe Hindi heartland states. Kumar had on Tuesday used a pejorative to describe Hindi heartland states while attacking the ruling BJP. He later apologised for his remarks. Taking to X, Kumar admitted that he used the word in an inappropriate manner.

INDIA allies break ice, date for next meet to be fixed soon

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE members of the Opposition bloc, Indian National Developmental Inclusive Alliance (INDIA), seems to have buried the hatchet as parleys are in progress to finalise a convenient date to hold the meeting of the coalition partners as per the availability of top leaders.

The Congress called off the Wednesday meeting, which was apparently scheduled without consultation with coalition partners. Instead, parliamentary party leaders of the alliance members held a meeting at the residence of Congress President Mallikarjun Kharge on Wednesday evening. However, leaders of Trinamool Congress (TMC) and Shiv Sena-Uddhav Balasaheb Thackeray (SS-UBT) were not present.

Kharge and former Congress president Rahul Gandhi chaired the meeting, Congress whip in Rajya Sabha Syed Naseer Hussain told media persons after the meeting.

Hussain said that several issues including the upcoming bills in Parliament and behaviour of the government were also deliberated upon.

According to Sanjay Raut of Shiv Sena-UBT, the next meeting of INDIA parties may take place on December 16 or 18.

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi and other leaders of the INDIA bloc meet at party president Mallikarjun Kharge's residence in New Delhi on Wednesday | PTI

On Tuesday, Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) supremo Lalu Yadav said that the members of opposition's coalition will hold a meeting on December 17.

In an apparent snub to Congress for ignoring INDIA bloc members during recently concluded assembly elections, TMC supremo and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav on Monday had expressed inability to attend the meeting.

Banerjee, speaking to the media persons at Kolkata airport before setting out on her six-day North Bengal tour, said that she would attend the Opposition bloc's next meeting, but added that the alliance partners should be informed at least 7-10 days in advance.

Will definitely attend next INDIA bloc meet: Nitish

Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar on Wednesday put all speculations about him not attending the INDIA bloc meeting to rest, by saying that he would definitely take part in the next meeting. He also opted himself out of the race to be Prime Minister. "I had expressed my inability to attend INDIA bloc's meeting in New Delhi as I was down with fever at that time," Kumar told the media.

India-Male stalemate continues over 'expulsion' of 77 soldiers

ON FOREIGN LAND

Though President Muizzu, on his return from Dubai, said that India would withdraw its troops, he also said that the numbers could have increased from 77 to 89 and could rise further. There are 24 military personnel managing one chopper, 25 managing the first Dornier, and 26 the second Dornier. In addition, there are two more for maintenance and engineering, bringing the total to 77.

THERE are 77 Indian soldiers in the Maldives, involved in the operations of one helicopter and two Dornier aircraft that India has provided. Notwithstanding the fact that Maldivian President Mohamed Muizzu made an announcement on their expulsion, the soldiers continue to remain there, and in addition, there is confusion on whether the numbers are higher and increasing. The tug-of-war continues on their retention or expulsion.

"The removal of Indian soldiers from the Maldives was one of the pledges of President Muizzu. He said it during his first speech as President. However, there is no date on when this will be done. The feeling in Male is that after the conversation President Muizzu had with PM Modi on the sidelines of COP 28 in Dubai, this has been put on the backburner," according to a source. Muizzu got elected on October 1 and took his oath on November 18.

"When President Muizzu met India's Earth Sciences Minister Kiren Rijiju in Male in November, he acknowledged India's contribution through the services of these aircraft and chopper for medical evacuation of Maldivian citizens. They are also on standby for any eventuality for international tourists and also help in monitoring and combating drug trafficking. Therefore, if the Maldivian government wants to continue these services, they will have to keep the personnel as well," according to a source.

Meanwhile, on Wednesday, Maldivian Democratic Party (MDP)'s MP Ahmed Abdulla called for an emergency motion during their parliamentary session.

"During the emergency motion, Ahmed demanded that if an agreement had been made regarding the withdrawal of Indian troops, it should be made public. The emergency motion was accepted in the Parliament by 33 out of 36 members who took part in the vote. Ahmed also said that different officials had different numbers of the Indian soldiers and wanted the exact number to be made public," according to a source.

"How many Indian soldiers are here in the Maldives on military visas, where have their weapons been stored, which Maldivian island or region are these armed soldiers based – all that information should be made public," Ahmed demanded.

Expedite norms on seizure of digital devices: SC

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Wednesday expressed its displeasure over the Central government's lackadaisical attitude in framing guidelines that the police and Central agencies should adhere to, during the search and seizure of personal digital devices of accused persons.

"What have you (the Centre) done so far? It has been more than two years since this particular Public Interest Litigation (PIL)," asked a two-judge bench headed by Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul and also comprising Sudhanshu Dhulia.

The bench made the remarks while hearing a PIL filed by the Foundation for Media Professionals (FMP). The FMP requested the court to establish safeguards and create a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) against any kind of unreasonable interference by law enforcement agencies.

The FMP also sought a direction from SC to the concerned authorities and probe agencies, to create comprehensive guidelines for search and seizure of digital devices.

During the course of the hearing, Additional Solicitor General (ASG) V Raju, appearing for the Union of India, told the top court that a committee has been formed, and the Central government would require more time to formulate the guidelines.

He also assured the Supreme Court that the guidelines will be framed soon to regulate seizure of phones or other digital devices belonging to individuals, particularly media professionals.

The bench, however, questioned the two-year delay by the government since the filing of the petition before it and said, "When did we issue notice? Some time frame has to be followed. Two years have passed."

The ASG assured the apex court that the guidelines would be ready by the next week. The bench asked him to get it done and posted the matter for further hearing to December 14.

Senior advocate Nitya Ramakrishnan, appearing for the petitioners, told the court that there is an urgent need for guidelines and suggested that copies of necessary data on devices could be taken instead of seizing the entire content.

About 300 journalists were raided in relation to the recent Newsclick case, she said.

On the last hearing, the top court remarked that there should be guidelines in place to govern the search and seizure of phones or other digital devices and media professionals could have confidential information or details about their sources on their devices.

The petition said there is increasing reliance on personal digital devices by media professionals for their journalistic work, which often involves handling "confidential information of public value, private correspondence with sources and whistle-blowers, and remote collaboration to break news stories in the public interest".

'Citizenship Act Sec 6A contravenes Art 14'

Senior lawyer Dushyant Dave on Wednesday told the SC bench hearing pleas challenging the Citizenship Act 1955, that Section 6A of the Act contravenes Article 14 of the Constitution. He argued that illegal migrants are encouraged to remain in Assam since this would entitle them citizenship in terms of 6A(3)(b).

Gujarat HC order on Choksi reversed

In a majot setback to fugitive Indian businessman Mehul Chinubhai Choksi, the SC recently had reversed a 2017 judgment of the Gujarat High Court, which quashed an FIR registered by the Gujarat Police in 2015 against him. The businessman had turned fugitive and left India in 2017, following the Punjab National Bank loan scam case.

Shoma Sen seeks urgent medical bail

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

ONE of the accused in the Bhima Koregaon case, Shoma Sen, on Wednesday pleaded in the Supreme Court for immediate interim bail on grounds of her deteriorating health.

Senior Supreme Court lawyer Anand Grover, appearing for Sen, sought bail citing that "her health is deteriorating day by day".

Sen, a women's rights activist and former head of the English Literature department in Nagpur University, has been an undertrial prisoner since June 6, 2018. She is currently lodged at the Byculla jail in Mumbai.

Sen, along with other activists and academics, was an accused in the 2018 case pertaining to Bhima Koregaon-Elgar Parishad Maoist links and criminal conspiracy. The activist is charged under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) (UAPA) Act.

A two-judge bench comprising Justices Aniruddha Bose and Augustine George Masih, hearing the matter, sought to know more about the case and fixed the matter for further hearing on Thursday.

Dance away! Garba makes it to Unesco heritage list

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

PRESTIGIOUS TAG

The inter-governmental committee of UNESCO's 2003 convention on Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage inscribed 'Garba of Gujarat' on the list during its 18th session being held in the Republic of Botswana. To celebrate this remarkable occasion, a troupe of eight dancers from the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) showcased Garba dance form at the meeting venue.

GARBA, a 'ritualistic and devotional' dance form from Gujarat, has found a place in the prestigious Unesco's intangible cultural heritage list of humanity. Culture Minister G Kishan Reddy on Wednesday announced the Garba inscription on micro-blogging site X and stated that it was a proud moment for the country.

"Congratulations India. A moment of profound national pride as 'Garba of Gujarat' is inscribed in UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) of Humanity. This marks the 15th ICH element from India to achieve this prestigious recognition. Garba, a tradition symbolizing celebration, devotion, gender inclusivity, and social equality, transcends geographical boundaries," he posted.

The minister further said that the inscription is testimony to the tireless efforts being made by the government under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to showcase our rich culture, traditions and heritage to the world.

Responding to the development, Modi said the 'honour' is an inspiration for preservation of heritage. "Garba is a celebration of life, unity and our deep-rooted traditions. Its inscription on the Intangible Heritage List showcases to the world the beauty of Indian culture. "This honour inspires us to preserve and promote our heritage for future generations. Congrats for this global acknowledgment," he posted on X.

The inter-governmental committee of UNESCO's 2003 convention on Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage inscribed 'Garba of Gujarat' on the list during its 18th session being held in the Republic of Botswana.

Garba is performed on the occasion of Navaratri, which is dedicated to the worship of the feminine energy or 'Shakti'. The dance takes place around a perforated earthenware pot lit with an oil lamp, or an image of the mother goddess Amba, stated the Unesco portal.

To celebrate this remarkable occasion, a troupe of eight dancers from the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) showcased Garba dance form at the meeting venue. In India, the government of Gujarat is organising curated 'Garba' events across districts to celebrate this milestone.

With the inscription of Garba, India now has 15 intangible cultural heritage elements on the UNESCO representative list. Earlier, Durga Puja in Kolkata (2021), Kumbh Mela (2017) and Yoga (2016) were inscribed on the prestigious list.

Army plans to induct 10K thermal image devices for surveillance soon

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

SPECIFICATIONS

As per the RFI sought from the vendors, it requires the "HHTI-UC with latest technology parameters to enable soldiers to carry out surveillance up to 3,000 metres". The surveillance device should facilitate judging distance of area under surveillance using laser range finders, it said.

THE Indian Army is in the process to induct around 10,000 Hand Held Thermal Imager-Uncooled (HHTI-UC) devices, for which the Request for Information (RFI) has been uploaded on its official website.

As per the RFI sought from the vendors, it requires the "HHTI-UC with latest technology parameters to enable soldiers to carry out surveillance up to 3,000 metres".

"The surveillance device should enable day and night surveillance with a combination of high resolution optical viewer, digital (low light) and thermal (uncooled) sensors.

The surveillance device should facilitate judging distance of area under surveillance using laser range finders, acquisition of magnetic bearing using DMC and provide own location to users employing inbuilt satellite navigation systems, including NAVIC (Navigation with Indian Constellation).

The surveillance device should weigh less than 3 kgs and facilitate recording and storage of minimum three hours of SD videos with removable storage devices. It should also enable seamless wired or wireless connectivity of minimum up to 50 metres with standard interfaces.

Once the vendors respond to the RFI, "Tentative date of issue of Request for Proposal (RFP) is June 2024. The total quantity required is approximately 10,000," the RFI says.

The procurement will be "in a phased manner, the desired quantity should be delivered within six months to twenty four months from the day of advance payment".

The vendors should confirm in their response their capability of delivering requisite quantity of HHTI-UC within the stipulated time frame.

Vendors are expected to forward the required documents and details by December 26 this year, the RFI said.

SCHOOL TIMINGS

Maharashtra Governor Ramesh Bais suggested changing school timings to ensure that students get adequate sleep. These days children are up till midnight and have to get up early for school, which makes them sleep-deprived, he said.

On Facebook, gangster Rohit Godara, linked to Lawrence Bishnoi gang, claims role in the murder, saying Gogamedi was killed for "backing" his enemies

Rajasthan cops identify the shooters as Rohit Rathore and Nitin Fauji

FAUJI IS SAID TO BE AN ARMY SOLDIER FROM HARYANA

Supporters of Sukhdev Singh Gogamedi stage protests in Jaipur | PTI

Rajasthan came to a standstill on Wednesday as protests erupted in many districts across the state following a bandh call against the murder of Sukhdev Gogamedi, the national president of Srikarni Sena on Tuesday. Highways were blocked, trains halted in Bhilwara, and markets remained shuttered in Kota city, where Karni Sena supporters gathered at the Collectorate. The police were deployed in large numbers to ensure law and order.

The state police identified the shooters as Rohit Rathore and Nitin Fauji. Their photos were circulated as the search intensified for international connections. Nitin Fauji is an Army soldier from Haryana and allegedly had links to gangster Sampat Nehra of the Lawrence Bishnoi gang, raising suspicions of a conspiracy in the murder.

Nitin Fauji, identified as a resident of Daungada Jat in Mahendragarh, Haryana, had joined the Army about four years ago. The Rajasthan Police conducted raids in Haryana and expanded the search to UP, Punjab, and Madhya Pradesh.

Governor Kalraj Mishra called a meeting of top officials and emphasized continuous vigilance. Chief Secretary Usha Sharma said the situation was being monitored at the district collector level. A post-mortem of Gogamedi was conducted and an FIR was registered. Director General of Police Umesh Mishra and home secretary Anand Kumar said efforts were on to apprehend the culprits.

On Tuesday, three men opened fire on Gogamedi and fled. Gogamedi was taken to a hospital, where doctors declared him brought dead. Guard Ajit Singh, who was present during the incident with Gogamedi, was seriously injured. Naveen Shekhawat, an aide of Gogamedi, also died in the firing. Gangster Rohit Godara shared the post on social media taking responsibility for the murder.

Gogamedi, who had received threats for the past three years, failed to get police security after he applied for it in April this year. The victim had deposited his licensed weapons due to the election code of conduct but upped his security. The police team that raided a few places in Haryana revealed that input about the murder had been received 10 months ago from Punjab Police, indicating Sampat Nehra's involvement.

The Punjab Police has formed multiple teams to find the shooters and has announced a reward of ₹5 lakh for each for any information leading to their arrest. Punjab Police sources said that in February this year, the Punjab DGP had shot off a letter to the Rajasthan Police highlighting a plot to kill the Karni Sena chief. The Punjab DGP suspected the role of the Lawrence Bishnoi gang.

"According to an input, notorious gangster Sampat Nehra of the Bishnoi gang, who is currently lodged in Bathinda Central Jail, has plans to kill Sukhdev Singh Gogamedi to incite religiously motivated riots in Rajasthan,'' read the secret information shared by the Punjab Police to their Rajasthan counterpart. The input suggested that Nehra was likely to arrange an AK-47 to accomplish the task through his associates outside the jail.

It is learnt that the Anti-Terrorist Squad (ATS) DIG Anshuman Bhomiya of Rajasthan Police had then flagged the threat to the Additional Director General of Police (Security) of Rajasthan, asking him to take further action. The Punjab Police has launched a special operation by strengthening check posts at all interstate borders.

Punjab governor reserves 3 bills for Prez's reference

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

- SIKH GURDWARAS (AMENDMENT) BILL: Aims at ensuring free-to-air telecast of 'Gurbani' from Golden Temple
- PUNJAB UNIVERSITIES LAWS (AMENDMENT) BILL: Seeks replacing the governor with the CM as chancellor of state-run universities
- PUNJAB POLICE (AMENDMENT) BILL: Paves the way for an independent mechanism for selection and appointment of DGP

GOVERNOR Banwarilal Purohit has reserved three Bills, including the one that aims to replace him with the chief minister as the chancellor of state-run universities, for the consideration of President Droupadi Murmu. These bills have been at the centre of a controversy between Purohit and the AAP-led Punjab government.

The bills sent to the President are The Sikh Gurdwaras (amendment) Bill, 2023, the Punjab Universities Laws (amendment) Bill, 2023 and The Punjab Police (amendment) Bill, 2023. The Punjab Assembly passed the bills in its June 19-20 session.

A Raj Bhavan spokesperson said: "The governor has reserved these three bills for the consideration of the President of India as per Article 200 of the Constitution."

The Article says: "When a bill has been passed by the legislative assembly of a state or, in the case of a state having a legislative council, it shall be presented to the governor and the governor shall declare either that he assents to the Bill or that he withholds assent or that he reserves the Bill for the President's consideration."

While the Punjab Police (amendment) Bill, 2023, aims to pave the way to bring about an independent mechanism for the selection and appointment of suitable persons to the director general of police post, the Sikh Gurdwaras (amendment) Bill, 2023, ensures free-to-air telecast of 'Gurbani' from the Golden Temple in Amritsar.

BJP may opt for tribal face as new CM

The BJP, buoyant with assembly results, is now exploring the most suitable leader for the post of chief minister. The party fought the assembly polls in the state without citing anyone as the CM face. The BJP high command, keeping in mind the upcoming Lok Sabha elections and the need for effective leadership in the state, has deliberated on several contenders who were prospective front-runners for the CM's chair. According to party insiders, the state BJP may have the post of deputy chief minister this time. If the name of former CM Raman Singh is not considered, the party is likely to opt for a tribal face.

More NOTA votes than victory margins in 8 seats

Interestingly, the state assembly polls this time saw as many as eight seats, out of the total 90, where the NOTA (None Of The Above) votes exceeded the victory margins and remained the third-highest choice. In fact, it stood third in 20 assembly constituencies and received more votes than those secured by the Bahujan Samaj Party and Janta Congress Chhattisgarh (Jogi) combined. A total of 1,97,678 NOTA votes were polled, which accounts for 1.26 per cent. Deputy CM TS Singhdeo lost by a margin of 94 votes, and his Ambikapur seat got 22,168 votes in favour of NOTA.

Political footprint of Jogi's party shrinks

The regional outfit Janta Congress Chhattisgarh-J (JCC-J), floated by its first chief minister late Ajit Jogi in June 2016, is going through a tough time in an election year, witnessing an evident decline, and failing to win even a single seat in the state elections. JCC-J state president Amit Jogi and his mother Dr Renu Jogi, who was an MLA from Kota, were losers this time. Both evidently couldn't fill the vacuum left by the former CM. The JCC-J, which often advocated the 'Chhattisgarh First' ideology, failed to impress the voters this time. In the 2018 assembly polls, the JCC-J won five seats, including that of Ajit Jogi from the Marwahi seat.

Toxic gas kills 2 Bihar workers in Gujarat factory

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @Ahmedabad

TWO Bihar workers died of asphyxiation after a chemical spill at a facility in Gujarat's Valsad district on Tuesday, the second major incident to occur in only fifteen days. On November 28, nine people were killed and 24 workers were injured in an explosion at Ether Chemical Industry at Sachin GIDC, Surat.

According to statistics, such incidents continue to occur in Gujarat. The state government data says, about 700 workers have died and 213 were injured in the 587 industrial accidents that occurred in Gujarat over the last three fiscal years.

According to data presented by the Gujarat government in response to a question posed by Congress MLA Jignesh Mevani during the last Monsoon Session of the Gujarat Assembly, the number of industrial accidents increased by 17% between 2020-21 and 2022-23.

In 2022-23, the number of industrial accidents in Gujarat increased from 179 in 2020-21 to 210. The number of fatalities also increased by 15%, from 217 in 2020-21 to 249 in 2022-23.

Lalduhoma says will meet Shah & Jaishankar to take up refugee issue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

MIZORAM's chief minister-designate and Zoram People's Movement (ZPM) stalwart Lalduhoma on Wednesday said he would take up the issues of refugees from Myanmar and Bangladesh and displaced Kukis from Manipur taking shelter in the state with Union Home Minister Amit Shah and External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar.

After meeting Governor Hari Babu Kambhampati at Raj Bhawan in Aizawl and staking a claim to form the government, Lalduhoma told journalists that he would meet the two central ministers in Delhi.

"External Affairs Minister Jaishankar, who happens to be my batchmate, called me yesterday (Tuesday) over the phone. I will go to Delhi at a convenient time and discuss the issue. This is a matter of diplomacy," the former Indian Police Service officer-turned-politician said on the issue of the refugees from the two neighbouring countries.

He added that he would also discuss the issue of the displaced Kukis stating, "They are all Indian citizens and our brothers and sisters. We will take care of them."

The previous Mizo National Front (MNF) government had sheltered over 12,000 displaced Kukis from Manipur and some 35,000 fleeing Chin and Kuki-Chin refugees from Myanmar and Bangladesh respectively.

The Kukis were displaced by the ethnic violence. The Chin refugees had fled Myanmar amid a political unrest while the Kuki-Chin refugees crossed over while fleeing an armed conflict between Bangladeshi forces.

Talking about his meeting with the governor, Lalduhoma said they discussed the issue of formation of the government.

"He (governor) appointed me as the new chief minister. He asked me to form the government which will be done on Friday. He assured full cooperation," Lalduhoma said.

AFTER sending out the first batch of invites to saints for the consecration ceremony early this week, Shree Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust has extended invitations for the ceremony to nearly 7,000 dignitaries ranging from politicians to celebrities besides the corporate captains.

The consecration of the idol of Lord Ram in child form in the 'sanctum sanctorum' of the upcoming temple in Ayodhya will take place on January 22, 2024 in the p resence of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, UP CM Yogi Adityanath, RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat.

According to temple trust sources, 150 Vedic priests would be engaged to conduct the rituals of the ceremony. The team of priests has been chosen under the guidance of Shankaracharya Vijendra Saraswati of Kashi. The puja would be led by Lakshmi Kant Dixit, and Ganeshwar Shastri Dravid, the vedic scholars of Kashi along with a team of 150 priests.

Prominent among those being invited to the much-hyped ceremony in the temple town include industrialists Gautam Adani, Mukesh Ambani and Ratan Tata. Bollywood celebrities like famous singer Asha Bhosle, actors Amitabh Bachchan, Akshay Kumar, Kangana Ranaut, Arun Govil (who played Lord Ram's character in Ramanand Sagars Ramayana on Doordarshan), Deepika Chikhilya (who played character of Goddess Sita) besides cricketers Sachin Tendulkar and Virat Kohli.

As pert the regional spokesman of the Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP), the invites have also been sent to journalists who supported them in making "the Ram temple a reality". Moreover, families of over 50 Karsewaks who shed their life during the temple movement are also invited to be a part of the consecration ceremony.

According to temple trust general secretary Champat Rai, efforts are on to invite at least one representative from 50 countries each. As per the temple trust sources, the invites have been sent via post and WhatsApp to saints, priests, shankaracharyas, religious leaders and VVIPs including former civil servants, retired Army officers, lawyers, scientists, poets, musicians and Padma Shri and Padma Bhushan recipients.

Of the 7,000 invitees, nearly 4,000 will be religious leaders from from across the country, while the remaining 3,000 will be VVIPs from all walks of life, said a senior VHP functionary.

The rituals would commence from January 15, On January 17, a Shobha Yatra of the immovable idol of Lord Ram in child form would be taken out and established on Janmabhoomi premises.

Tourist footfall likely to be impacted as severe power crisis grips Valley

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

4-8 hrs power cut

Kashmir is facing a severe power crisis with the metered areas facing 4-8 hours daily power cuts and non-metered areas facing 8-12 hour power cuts. The situation is grimmer in the rural areas. People connected to travel industry fear that if the situation does not improve, then they will have to refuse fresh bookings.

THE severe power crisis in Kashmir is causing inconvenience to the tourists travelling to the to the Valley and has also impacted the tourist footfall. The tourist stakeholders say if the power crisis continues then it will have a major impact on the winter tourism in the Valley.

President Travel Agents Association of Kashmir, Farooq Ahmad Kuthoo said the ongoing power crisis in the Valley has caused some inconvenience to the tourists as well.

Kashmir is facing a severe power crisis with the metered areas facing 4-8 hours daily power cuts and non metered areas facing 8-12 hour power cuts. The situation is grimmer in the rural areas.

"Tourists come to Kashmir from warm places and they need proper heating facilities in the hotels or houseboats on their arrival here. They are facing some inconvenience as the hotel owners cannot run the generators for 24 hours due to high costs," he said.

According to Kuthoo, the power crisis has also impacted tourist arrivals to the Valley.

"Tourists returning to their places after spending some days in the Valley tell others about the situation here," he said adding there have been some cancellations of bookings by the travelers due to power crisis.

Kashmir Houseboat Owners Association (KHOA) General Secretary Abdul Rasheed also admitted that the power crisis is causing inconvenience to the tourists.

"A group of tourists had booked a houseboat in Dal Lake and were scheduled to stay there for a night. But with no electricity they cancelled their stay on the houseboat immediately," he said. "The inconvenience caused to tourists due to power crisis is bringing a bad name to Kashmir tourism industry".

A spokesman of hotel owner bodies KHARA-KHAROF stated that there are cases of tourists cutting their stay short and returning to their home towns, leading to bad publicity.

"On one hand, authorities make all efforts to woo tourists and on the other hand they fail to provide regulated power supply. The hotels have to use generators to provide uninterrupted power supply and it is proving to be unfeasible," he said.

The hotelier bodies expressed fear that if the power situation does not improve, then they will be left with no alternative but to refuse fresh bookings.

Israeli forces encircle Gaza's key city in south

Some of the most intense urban combats of the two-month war unfolding in Khan Younis

Smoke rises following an Israeli bombardment in the Gaza Strip, as seen from southern Israel | AFP

GAZA STRIP

ISRAELI forces were encircling southern Gaza's main city on Wednesday, battling Hamas militants through streets and buildings in some of the most intense combat of the two-month war.

The focus of the conflict has shifted into the besieged territory's south following fierce fighting and bombardment that reduced much of the north to rubble and forced nearly two million people to flee their homes. Israeli tanks, armoured personnel carriers and bulldozers were seen on Tuesday near southern Gaza's city of Khan Yunis, forcing already displaced civilians to pack up and flee again, witnesses told AFP.

"Our forces are now encircling the Khan Yunis area in the southern Gaza Strip," Israel's army chief Herzi Halevi said late Tuesday.

"We have secured many Hamas strongholds in the northern Gaza Strip, and now we are operating against its strongholds in the south."

The fighting on Tuesday was "the most intense day since the beginning of the ground operation" in late October, the army's Southern Command chief Major General Yaron Finkelman said. Israel declared war on Hamas after the militant group's October 7 attacks that killed 1,200 people, mostly civilians, according to Israeli authorities, and saw around 240 hostages taken.

The latest toll from the Hamas-run government media office said 16,248 people in Gaza, most of them women and children, had been killed.

Israel has vowed to destroy Hamas and free 138 hostages still held after scores were freed during a short-lived truce.

Several Hamas commanders were killed in an air strike near the Indonesia Hospital, the Israeli military said early Wednesday on X. Sources in Hamas and Islamic Jihad, another Palestinian militant group, told AFP their fighters were battling Israeli troops early Wednesday in a bid to prevent them from breaking into Khan Yunis and surrounding areas.

According to the Hamas-run government media office, dozens of people were killed and injured in heavy strikes on areas east of Khan Yunis. AFP

U.S., SWEDEN SIGN DEFENCE DEAL WITH EYES ON RUSSIA

On the brink of joining NATO, Sweden has signed a defense cooperation agreement with Washington that will allow the United States access to all of the military bases across the Scandinavian country, saying the deal would bolster regional security.

AMERICAN FORCES TO OPERATE IN SWEDEN

As per Pentagon, the defence pact paves the way for US forces to operate in Sweden, including the legal status of US military personnel, access to deployment areas and prepositioning of military hardware

Swedish Defence Minister Pål Jonson said the deal, "will create better conditions for Sweden to be able to receive support from the United States in the event of a war or crisis"

STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE

1 Sweden's strategically important Baltic Sea island of Gotland sits a little more than 300 kilometers from the Russian Baltic Sea exclave of Kaliningrad

2 The US struck a similar deal with Sweden's western neighbour, NATO member Norway, in 2021 and is currently negotiating such an agreement with NATO members Finland and Denmark

NEW DEMAND FROM TURKIYE

Turkiye's President Recep Erdogan on Wednesday linked the ratification of Sweden's NATO membership to the approval by the US Congress of Turkiye's request to purchase 40 F-16 fighter jets

"I fulfilled my duty, but I also expect something from you," Erdogan told a group of journalists

Putin lands in UAE on rare trip since start of Ukraine war

ABU DHABI

PRESIDENT Vladimir Putin is in the United Arab Emirates for a rare visit outside the former Soviet Union Wednesday, as Russia seeks to reassert itself on the global stage.

Isolated by the West over the Ukraine war, Putin is courting allies in West Asia, where he will discuss oil, trade and the Israel-Hamas conflict. Putin was greeted on the runway by UAE officials, Russian television showed, before heading to the presidential palace under cavalry escort.

"Today, thanks to your posture, our relations have reached unprecedented levels," Putin told UAE President Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan on his arrival, praising high trade between the countries. Later today Putin is scheduled to travel to Saudi Arabia to meet with the kingdom's de facto ruler Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman.

Russia's President Vladimir Putin shakes hands with UAE Foreign Minister Sheikh Abdullah Bin Zayed upon his arrival in Abu Dhabi on Wednesday | AFP

This is only the Russian leader's third trip outside the former Soviet Union since he invaded Ukraine, after visits to Iran and China. Putin has since March been wanted for war crimes by the International Criminal Court (ICC) that has accused him of deporting Ukrainian children.

He skipped the BRICS summit in South Africa in August to avoid causing a "political show" and missed the in-person flagship G20 summit in September. But neither the UAE nor Saudi Arabia have signed the ICC's founding treaty, which means they would not have to arrest him.

"Putin has certainly been speaking more confidently now than any time since the war began," said Nigel Gould-Davies, senior fellow for Russia and Eurasia at the International Institute for Strategic Studies.

Russia's defensive lines largely held against a counteroffensive that Ukraine launched with billions of dollars worth of arms from the West, where aid to Ukraine is under debate. And Moscow has learned to adapt to Western sanctions, with oil revenue rebounding. Trade and oil will be on the agenda in the UAE, which a Kremlin statement said is "Russia's main economic partner in the Arab world".

Bilateral trade between the two countries reached a record $9 billion in 2022, the Kremlin said. Talks will also focus on cooperation in the energy sector, after Russia — one of 10 OPEC partners – said it would deepen voluntary supply cuts. AFP

TIME NAMES TAYLOR SWIFT ITS PERSON OF THE YEAR

NEW YORK

TIME magazine named US pop superstar Taylor Swift as its person of the year on Wednesday, calling the musical force of nature the "hero of her own story." Swift has smashed industry records this year with both her tour and the film of the globetrotting musical cavalcade that is estimated to bring in almost $2 billion of revenue as her adoring fans flock to see her in the flesh.

PERSON OF THE YEAR
TIME

"Taylor Swift found a way to transcend borders and be a source of light... Swift is the rare person who is both the writer and hero of her own story," Time Mag's editor-in-chief Sam Jacobs wrote.

"Much of what Swift accomplished in 2023 exists beyond measurement. She mapped her journey and shared the results with the world: She committed to validating the dreams, feelings, and experiences of people, especially women, who felt overlooked and regularly underestimated."

The huge $92.8 million opening earlier this year of Taylor Swift's The Eras Tour film set the tone for the 33-year-old Cruel Summer singer's 2023.

Advance ticket sales for the movie topped $100 million worldwide, theater operator AMC said, making it the best-selling feature-length concert film in history. "(Fans) had to work really hard to get the tickets... I wanted to play a show that was longer than they ever thought it would be, because that makes me feel good leaving the stadium," Swift told Time.

This year, Swift's blossoming romance with Kansas City Chiefs player Travis Kelce has also brought the NFL a whole new wave of fans as her hundreds of millions of social media followers checked out her new squeeze. "For building a world of her own that made a place for so many, for spinning her story into a global legend, for bringing joy to a society desperately in need of it, Taylor Swift is TIME's 2023 Person of the Year," Jacobs said.

Taxi driver arrested in Japan for running over pigeon

TOKYO

A Tokyo taxi driver was arrested for deliberately driving into a flock of pigeons and killing one, police said Tuesday, reportedly because he was angry that the birds were on the road.

Atsushi Ozawa, 50, "used his car to kill a common pigeon, which is not a game animal", in the Japanese capital last month, and was arrested on Sunday for violating wildlife protection laws, a Tokyo police spokesman said. Ozawa sped off from a traffic light when it turned green, ploughing his taxi into the bevy of birds at a speed of 60 kilometres per hour, local media said. Tokyo police had a veterinarian perform a post-mortem on the hapless pigeon and determined its cause of death as traumatic shock, according to local media. Police called his behaviour "highly malicious" for a professional driver, before deciding to go ahead with the arrest, Fuji TV said.

Govt to spend ₹1.3L cr more in FY24

A large part of the amount will be allocated to subsidies on fertilizers and food schemes

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE government has sought parliamentary approval for increased spending of more than ₹1.29 lakh crore in the current fiscal year.

As per the Centre's submissions to the lower House of parliament, a large part of the amount will be allocated to subsidies on fertilizers and food. The supplementary demand for grants, presented to the Lok Sabha, highlights additional spending requirements and reallocation of resources from one scheme to another.

The proposals involve a net cash outgo of ₹58,378.21 crore, with the remaining additional spending of ₹70,968.15 crore being financed through savings or surplus revenue. Besides, token provision of ₹2.49 crore is being sought, one lakh for each item of expenditure, for enabling re-appropriation of savings in cases involving New Service or New Instrument of Service.

MAJOR ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

| Purpose | Net cash outgo (₹ cr) |
|---|---|
| MNREGS | 14,524.29 |
| Fertilizer subsidy | 13,350.81 |
| LPG Connections to poor | 9,196.54 |
| Guarantee Redemption Fund | 9,013.72 |
| Capital Infusion in BSNL | 7,722.45 |
| Investment in PSU insurers | 6,973.24 |
| Food subsidy | 5,500 |
| Defence services | 5,371.80 |

Net cash outgo is ₹58,378 cr, spending of ₹70,968 cr to be financed via savings

Govt anticipates additional expenditure of ₹16,142 cr on MGNREGS for FY24

The government plans to increase spending on the nutrient-based fertilizer subsidy scheme by ₹13,350.81 crore (a 30% increase) and on the free food program 'Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana' by ₹5,500 crore (a 2.8% increase).

Additionally, the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MNREGS) will receive an extra ₹14,524.29 crore, bringing the total spending on the program to ₹77,175.51 crore.

The government anticipates an overall additional expenditure of ₹16,142.86 crore on the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MGNREGS) for the current year. The rest of the amount would come from savings. The government had initially budgeted for ₹60,000 crore for MNREGS.

It is to be noted that the total spending earmarked for this year is lower than the amount of ₹89,154.65 spent last year, as per the revised estimates.

The government has also allocated ₹1,280 crore for LPG subsidies and ₹8,499.99 crore for providing LPG connections to poor households.

The net cash outgo also includes ₹7,722 crore towards capital infusion in BSNL and Optical Fibre Control based network of Defence Services. As per the document submitted in Lok Sabha, the government would infuse an additional capital of ₹11,850 crore in BSNL. Some of it will come from savings and surplus revenue. Another ₹6,900 crore have been provided for investment in public sector insurers on account of award of bonus share issued by the companies.

UCO Bank fraud case: CBI conducts raids in 13 locations

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

8.53L transactions in UCO Bank mistakenly

8.53 lakh transactions were mistakenly posted in UCO Bank account holders' records, despite originating banks registered failed transactions. ₹820 crore found its way into UCO Bank accounts without proper debits from the originating banks' accountholders

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on Wednesday said it conducted raids at 13 locations in Kolkata and Mangaluru in the case related to wrongful IMPS transactions worth ₹820 crore in UCO Bank accounts.

The investigation agency on Wednesday informed that raids were conducted at premises of two support engineers working with the bank, bank official s and other private persons. Mobile phones, laptops, computer systems, email archives, and debit/credit cards were recovered during the searches.

CBI has registered a case against two support engineers and other persons on complaint from UCO Bank. The Kolkata-based bank alleged in its complaint between November 10 and November 13, 2023, transactions originating from 14,000 account holders across seven private banks were directed to 41,000 account holders within UCO Bank via Immediate Payment Service (IMPS) channel.

As per the complaint, 8.53 lakh transactions were mistakenly posted in UCO Bank accountholders' records, despite the originating banks registering failed transactions. A sum of ₹820 crore found its way into UCO Bank accounts without proper debits from the originating banks' accountholders. Several account holders of the bank 'illicitly' withdrew money from UCO Bank through various banking channels.

The bank in a statement on November 16 had said it recovered ₹649 crore out of ₹820 crore or 79% of the amount. The bank had said it was taking actions to recover the balance amount of ₹171 crore. It had earlier said due to 'technical issue in IMPS, certain transactions initiated by holders of other banks have resulted in credit to the account holders in the bank without actual receipt of money from these banks.

After the matter came to light, finance ministry called a meeting on November 28 to address concerns regarding cyber security in the financial services sector.

MPL's revenue up 63% in FY23 at $104.6 million

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

GAMING unicorn Mobile Premier League (MPL) on Wednesday said its revenue surged 63% in FY23 to reach $104.6 million from $64.1 million in FY22.

The company has derived 38% of this revenue from its operations in international markets up from 11% in FY22.

Besides India, MPL is present in North America, Africa and Europe. Its losses in the same period narrowed by over 70% at $37.04 million from $194.47 million in FY22. It said this reduction was due to its shift in marketing strategy focusing on ROI and also optimisation of infrastructure costs. Its India revenue stood at ₹522 crore in FY23 compared to ₹424 crore.

Founded in 2018, it launched in the US in 2021, and the following year, it acquired GameDuell, one of the biggest gaming companies in Europe. This year, MPL forayed into Africa by partnering with Carry1st, a leading gaming firm in the continent.

MPL in August cut its workforce by 50% or 350 people after the government retained a 28% GST on online gaming.

In an email to employees, its founder and CEO Sai Srinivas had said new rules would raise its tax burden by 350-400%. He added, "In a short span of four years, we have achieved a lot. MPL India was on track to continue the amazing business performance we have since December when we turned EBITDA positive. In fact, we recorded our best ever month in terms of business performance in June and we beat that in July."

Sensex may hit 70,000, Nifty 21,000 level soon

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

WITH bulls showing zero signs of taking a step back, the BSE barometer Sensex is expected to hit the 70,000 milestone and the NSE benchmark Nifty50 is likely to clinch the 21,000 mark for the first time ever in India's capital market history in the next few sessions.

Gaining for the seventh straight session, the 30-share BSE Sensex surged 357.59 points, or 0.52%, to settle at a new record of 69,653.73 on Wednesday while the broader Nifty50 climbed 82.60 points, or 0.40%, to hit its fresh peak of 20,937.70. "70000 Sensex and 21000 Nifty are only a question of when. The undercurrent of the market is bullish and all factors are favourable, except, perhaps, valuation," V K Vijayakumar, chief investment strategiest at Geojit Financial Services, told this newspaper.

He added that foreign institutional investors turning buyers and huge delivery volumes in largecaps, particularly in leading banking names, can easily take Sensex beyond 70000 and Nifty beyond 21000 in the near-term. The ongoing rally has picked up a pack after the victory of PM Narendra Modi-led Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh state elections. The election results have reinforced the belief that the ruling party will come back to power in the 2024 general elections. This, according to market experts, will provide stability and business-friendly policies.

The election results coupled with favourable factors such as sharp growth in September quarter GDP numbers, robust GST collections and a fall in consumer inflation have made India a very attractive market despite being more expensive than other emerging economies.

In the past seven sessions, Sensex and Nifty50 have added about 5-5.50 percentage points each. In the calendar year 2023 so far, Sensex has gained about 14% while Nifty has surged over 15%. The gains have pushed India's market capitalisation to an all-time high of Rs 349 lakh crore, or about $4.20 trillion.

Considering Apple's request against universal charging ports, says govt

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

INDIA is still considering the request made by Apple not to mandate universal charging ports for its existing iPhones, said minister of state for electronics and information technology Rajeev Chandrasekhar.

The minister said the government took suggestions from all stakeholders on the issue, and it will soon come up with its decision.

"There is still consultation going on the issue of mandating universal charging ports for all smartphones in the country. We have sought views from all stakeholders, and Apple has raised concern on it, and we said we will look into the matter," said the minister.

The American tech-giant Apple, in a meeting with Meity officials, urged officials to exempt existing iPhone models from the regulation. The company said that its local production goals might suffer due to this decision. Also, the company would not be able to meet its production targets set under the country's production-linked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The European Union (EU) has already given device manufacturers a deadline of December 2024 to add Type-C chargers in all electronic products. In India, a committee of the Ministry of Consumer affairs has given time till June 2025 to implement the common USB Type-C wired charging standard.

As per the reports, the Ministry of Consumer Affairs sent its recommendation to the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology information technology (Meity). Now Meity will prepare a framework to implement the common USB Type-C wired charging standard. Most manufacturers, including Samsung, have agreed to comply with the rule, but Apple is yet to endorse the plan.

In FY23, India exported more than $11.12 billion worth of mobile phones, of which Apple accounted for around $5 billion, Samsung contributed about $4.5 billion, with the remainder coming from Indian and Chinese brands.

Retail auto sales touch new peak in November with 28.54 lakh units

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ON the back of high demand during festive season, monthly retail auto sales hit an all-time high in November 2023 with 28.54 lakh vehicles finding buyers, surpassing the previous high of 25.69 lakh units in March 2020, as per data issued by Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (Fada).

While passenger vehicle (PV) sales rose 17.19% year-on-year to cross the 3.6 lakh mark in November, overtaking sales of 3.57 lakh cars achieved in October 2022, two-wheeler retail sales grew by 21% to hit a fresh peak of 22.47 lakh units.

"For the 2W category, the month saw a boost in auto retail, making it clock all-time high retails, buoyed by the festive excitement of Deepawali and enhanced by strong rural sentiments, thanks to thriving agricultural income. New product launches and better model supply fuelled the growth, electric vehicle sales demonstrated an encouraging upward trajectory," said FADA president Manish Raj Singhania.

On PV sales, he said demand was fuelled by Deepawali and the launch of new and appealing models. The improved supply chains, coupled with new launches, catered to the festive demand, marking the peak point in sales, he added. Fada expects 2W sales momentum to continue but the near-term outlook doesn't look promising for the PV market. "The period following the festivities saw a noticeable slowdown, coupled with a critical challenge of slow-moving inventory due to a mismatch in demand and supply, which is still not resolved. This issue casts a shadow over the otherwise positive trends, highlighting the need for strategic adjustments in inventory management," said Singhania.

The 2W category, as per Fada, is likely to benefit in the near-term from a liquidity boost, mainly in agricultural regions and the ongoing marriage season, with about 38 lakh marriages expected to drive sales.

India fastest growing market, key location for talent: Waters Corp CEO

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

IN the last one month alone, Waters Corporation, a US-based analytical instruments and software company, has recruited 300 people for its newly-inaugurated Global Capability Centre (GCC) in Bengaluru.

The company says India has been the strongest and fastest growing market irrespective of a soft global economy, and the country has produced strong growth, growing at a CAGR of 20% over the last five years.

The company, which has been in the country for over 35 years, opened its first GCC centre on Wednesday with an investment of about ₹130 crore. The centre will enable the company to accelerate technology and software development digitisation, operational excellence and productivity. The GCC employs a team across global IT, software engineering and data analytics.

Udit Batra, President & chief executive officer, Waters Corporation | ENS

With over 430 employees, Waters works with 2,300 labs in India. The country has the potential to leapfrog its status as a generic manufacturing powerhouse to play a major role in biosimilars.

India has 100 approved biosimilars, which is the most of any country in the world, and in terms of generics, India supplies 20% share of global supply volume.

Udit Batra, President and CEO, Waters Corporation, said, "India continues to be one of our fastest growing markets and a key location for the talent."

He added that 80% of its business in India is with pharma. Waters clocked $2.97 billion in 2022, and its product portfolio includes mass spectrometry, precision chemistry and laboratory informatics software, among others.

Batra said Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning are also being put to use and that GCC in Bengaluru will develop talent within the company to accelerate digital capabilities.

During the third quarter, the country was about 20% of total Asia-Pacific revenues and through the third quarter of 2023, India has produced strong growth, with all three of its major end markets- Pharma, Industrial and Academic-growing double digits.

Ex-champion Wozniacki gets wild card for Oz Open

Former No 1-ranked Caroline Wozniacki has been awarded one of the first wild cards for the 2024 Australian Open and is planning on bringing her two young children to the scene of her biggest Grand Slam triumph. Wozniacki, the 2018 Australian Open women's champion, and six Australian players were granted the first batch of wild cards.

Year's delivery leads to dream debut for Saika

Left-arm spinner used WPL as a launchpad to make national bow

GOMESH S @ Chennai

Saika Ishaque (L) with coach Shibsagar Singh | SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

WHEN Saika Ishaque received her India cap from captain Harmanpreet Kaur moments before the first T2oI against England at Wankhede on Wednesday, the joy on her face was enough to express what it meant to her. Slightly behind her was Shreyanka Patil, the other debutant, who was cheering on with a beaming smile on her face. The two spinners who were the highlight of the inaugural Women's Premier League were making their India debuts on the same day.

While Shreyanka's coach Arjun Dev was watching from the stands, thousands of miles away in Kolkata, there were two people who were overjoyed by the success of Saika. Mithu Mukherjee and Shibsagar Singh. Former India cricketer Mithu had no words to express the emotions and Singh was overwhelmed by the shining moment of Saika. After all, the two of them had played a big role at a crucial point in Saika's career when almost left the sport.

Having come up through age-group cricket at the domestic level, Saika was a household name in Bengal cricketing circles. However, a shoulder injury meant things went downhill fast and she was dropped from the state team. That is when the left-arm spinner got in touch with Mithu who put her in contact with former India Under-19 and Bengal cricketer Singh. "It was a complete U turn, there was a phase where nothing was going her way. She was dropped from the Bengal team and suddenly things changed. We worked on her action, wrist position a bit, but mostly it was about the lines she had to bowl for different batters and situations and not just keep bowling good length and go searching for wickets," recalls Singh.

She was getting back on track, her confidence went up as the coach constantly made her practice against male cricketers who were playing at the state level. The instruction was to take her on, and despite being hit, Saika developed variations and adapted for different situations. While the results started to show in domestic cricket, the left-arm spinner was nowhere near the national radar. The two factors that became the turning points were the WPL and Jhulan Goswami. Now, having seen her from the start, Goswami, who was with the Mumbai Indians, played a hand in Saika getting a chance in the inaugural season. "She came back and was playing well, but was not getting noticed. Many people know she is a good player domestically. At the same time, she needed someone to tell. Jhulan knew her talent from the start and how smart she was. That was a massive plus otherwise you don't know whether she would have got picked or not," says Singh.

Once she got the chance, Saika made the most of it, taking 15 wickets in ten games, helping Mumbai Indians win the title. Such was her performance that she was the only Indian spinner in the top ten wicket-takers. Immediately, the limelight was on her and everyone was tracking her bowling. She took the confidence into the domestic season and finished as the leading wicket-taker in the senior women's T20 Trophy — 18 wickets in nine games. Another eight wickets in five Inter-Zonal games meant she had earned her India call-up. "We don't know if she would have moved up the ladder so fast if not for the WPL. It is such a platform like IPL, the entire country watches you and the platform is such that many players are from overseas and she dismissed most of them. What she achieved in that 20 days, after that the confidence has grown. That is why the tournament changed her life," said the coach. 2023 has been a big year for Saika. For someone who once had to stop studies because of the financial constraints, it was Saika's success in cricket that helped her family come up. Her late father introduced her to the sport, but since then she has been the breadwinner for the family, helping her mother and elder sister, for a long time now. And today, Saika is an India international cricketer. "It is a massive, massive thing for her family. Her father passed away, she is a sole breadwinner, but she has always had the confidence that she will play (for India). The thing about her is she is not afraid. She never is," says Singh who is working with Bengal U23 women's team.

On her debut, Saika finished with 1/38 with England posting 197/6, which India failed to chase. While the figures aren't something that makes one sit up and notice, Singh feels this is just the beginning. Brief scores: England 197/6 in 20 ovs (Sciver-Brunt 77, Wyatt 75) bt India 159/6 in 20 ovs (Shafali 52; Ecclestone 3/15). Full story: newindianexpress.com

Du Plessis hints at comeback for T20 World Cup

AGENCIES @ Abu Dhabi

FORMER South Africa captain, Faf du Plessis, has hinted at a comeback to international cricket ahead of the T20 World Cup. The opener, a very popular figure in the world of franchise cricket even now, has revealed that he has been having discussions with South Africa coach Rob Walter. He last featured in a T20I three years ago in 2020 while his last match was a Test against Pakistan in February 2021. "I believe that I can return to international cricket," du Plessis told the broadcaster of Abu Dhabi T10 league. "We have been speaking about this for the last couple of years. It's just figuring out the balance of the T20 World Cup next year. It's certainly something we have spoken about with the new coach," he added.

Bangladesh's Mehidy Hasan Miraz celebrates the wicket of New Zealand's Kane Williamson during Day 1 of the second Test in Dhaka | AP

Bangladesh dominate Day One of second Test

Mirpur: Bangladesh took full control of the final Test against New Zealand after 15 wickets fell on an eventful Day One on Wednesday as the hosts pursue a first ever test series win against the Kiwis. The home side was all out for 172 but hit back strongly to reduce New Zealand to 55-5 in 12.4 overs before bad light forced stumps. Even as the wickets rumbled, batter Mushfique Rahim hogged the headlines as he was dismissed for obstructing the field. Brief scores: Bangladesh 172 in 66.2 ovs (Rahim 35; Satner 3/65, Phillips 3/31) vs New Zealand 55/5 in 12.4 ovs (Miraz 3/17).

ICC, CWI inspect WC venues

St John's (Antigua): Delegates of the International Cricket Council (ICC) and Cricket West Indies (CWI) have started a second inspection of the venues in the Caribbean and in the USA ahead of next year's T20 World Cup. The two-week review of the preparedness of the venues had started on November 30 and will conclude on December 15, stated a CWI release.

ICC Head of Operations, Khushiyal Singh explained the areas the inspection team has been focussing over the fortnight. "Areas that will be assessed include pitch and outfield preparations, practice facilities, players dressing rooms, broadcast and media facilities, IT and security capabilities, hotels and guest houses…areas for fan parks, and other key components that are fundamental to the successful staging of the ICC Men's T20 World Cup," said Singh. Once the inspections and assessments are completed, the ICC will compile its findings and communicate them to CWI alongside necessary recommendations.

F1: Mercedes under scanner

AGENCIES @ Paris

MOTOR sport's governing body, the FIA, is to launch an investigation into a potential conflict of interest believed to centre on Mercedes team boss Toto Wolff and his wife Susie, who works for Formula One Management (FOM), the body announced on Tuesday.

Without naming any names or teams, the FIA said it was "aware of media speculation centred on the allegation of information of a confidential nature" being passed to an F1 team principal from a member of FOM personnel.

"The FIA compliance department is looking into the matter," added the FIA in a press release.

I believe I will be competitive: Nadal

AGENCIES @ Madrid

RAFAEL Nadal on Wednesday insisted he will be "competitive" when he returns to professional tennis next month after enduring nearly a year out of action due to injury.

The 22-time Grand Slam champion has undergone surgery twice in 2023 after struggling with a hip injury.

He has said next year will likely be his last season before retirement and announced last week he would make his comeback at the Australian Open warm-up event in Brisbane, which runs from January 1-7.

Rafael Nadal is set to return next month after nearly a year out of action

"I don't know at what level (he will play at), I don't know what to expect, I have no idea, but I don't care right now," Nadal said in a video posted on social media. "I'm just happy to be back and with great excitement to make the effort that is necessary to have fun and I believe that I will be competitive."

Nadal last played at the Australian Open in January, losing in the second round to American MacKenzie McDonald.

He originally hoped to be back in time for the clay-court season and Roland Garros, where he is a 14-time French Open winner, but had to end his campaign early.

The 37-year-old Spaniard has slipped to 664th in the world rankings while sidelined. "It's been a long year in which I've gone through many phases, from trying to get back to compete at the clay season, week after week, disappointment after disappointment," said the former World No 1.

"Of course I have had many doubts, of course there were moments where it seemed impossible that this moment would come, but we've maintained the work, spirit and hope and I think I am ready."

Nadal is a two-time Australian Open champion, in 2009 and 2022. He has slipped behind old rival Novak Djokovic in the all-time list of Grand Slam singles titles.

Despite missing IPL trials, UP's Sameer may set auction on fire

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

SAMEER Rizvi impressed all and sundry with his power-packed performances during the inaugural Uttar Pradesh T20 League in August-September this year. Kanpur Superstars, the team he was leading, might not have qualified for the knock-outs but his show with the willow — he scored 455 runs from nine innings including two centuries (the second of which was the fastest of the tournament) — was enough for scouts from various IPL teams to invite the right-hand batter from Meerut for the trials before the mini auction.

As luck would have it, Sameer, who turned 20 on Wednesday, had to miss those trials as he was asked to lead the Uttar Pradesh team in the Men's U-23 State A (ODI) Trophy. Incidentally, he was playing for the senior state team in the Syed Mushtaq Ali T20 Trophy in Mohali and scored 42 not out against Punjab in the losing cause when the UP Cricket Association asked him to join the U-23 squad playing its matches in Chandigarh. The next day, he scored 91 off 65 in the U-23 tournament against Rajasthan but the innings once again went in vain.

However, that turned out to be the last blip in UP's campaign as Sameer scored two consecutive centuries to help the team in the knock-outs. After the team won those matches, he again hammered a 50-ball 84 as UP defeated Uttarakhand to lift the title. "He got calls for trials with almost all franchises after his good show during the UP T20 League but he had to skip them as he was given the command of the U-23 state team," Tankeeb Akhtar, Sameer's coach and maternal uncle, told this daily from Meerut.

Numbers that matter

UP T20 LEAGUE

3rd leading scorer with 455 runs from 9 innings. Joint most sixes (35) in the tournament. Fastest century (47 balls) in the league.

MEN'S U-23 STATE A TROPHY

Led UP to title by scoring 454 runs from 7 matches. Most sixes (37) in the tournament.

Despite missing the trials, the coach is hopeful that he will be picked up by one of the IPL teams in the auction scheduled on December 19. "He has registered in the uncapped players' category and I am sure he will get the buyer," added Tankeeb, who is the sole reason why Sameer started playing cricket at the age of 6. "I shifted from my village to Meerut so that I could pursue cricket in 2004. I stayed with my sister Rukhsana Khatoon. There I realised I was too late to play cricket professionally so I switched to coaching. It was at Gandhi Bagh Cricket Academy where Sameer started playing cricket in 2009. Earlier his father and my brother-in-law Haseen Rizvi used to get angry as Sameer was not focussing on his studies but once he started playing for Uttar Pradesh everything got sorted," recalled the coach.

Sameer made his Ranji Trophy debut in January 2020 when he was only 16 but the stint ended with only two matches. He then made a comeback to the state team, this time in the 50-over format, the next year and since then he has been an integral part of both the one-day and T20 squads. In his young journey, Sameer had his share of heartbreaks as he missed the U-19 World Cup but that couldn't deter him from seeking excellence on the field. "We have been nurturing this dream to see him play in the IPL for the past couple of years but this year he has performed quite well be it the UP League or BCCI tournaments. I must thank Sanspareils Greenlands (SG) owner Paras Anand for sponsoring him since he was 10. We all will be proud if he plays in the IPL and eventually goes on to represent the country."

There is a reason why Tankeeb and others knowing Sameer are confident of him getting picked in the IPL auction. In the UP T20 League, Sameer was third in the list of leading scorers. He was joint-first with Karan Sharma for hitting the most sixes in the tournament (35). He joined the UP U-23 squad late but topped the list there as well slamming 37 sixes from seven matches. He scored 454 runs in six innings at the tournament with an average of 75.67 and strike rate of 156.55 including two centuries. "Playing with experienced campaigner Bhuvneshwar Kumar and T20 sensations — Rinku Singh and Nitish Rana — only helped him grow as a cricketer. All of them suggested him to play his natural game and score runs in bulk. This experience will count a lot in the future."

Come December 19, Sameer may turn out to be the hottest property as far as uncapped players are concerned and it would be the moment to cherish for Tankeeb, who is living his dream through his nephew.

Injury-time header caps Arsenal win in seven-goal thriller

AFP @ London

ARSENAL won their sixth straight match (all competitions) after Declan Rice's last-gasp goal capped the leaders' thrilling fightback in their 4-3 win against Luton in the Premier League on Tuesday.

Rocked by a pair of costly blunders from 'keeper David Raya, Mikel Arteta's side trailed 3-2 in the second half of a pulsating clash at Kenilworth Road. But Arsenal roared back thanks to Kai Havertz's equaliser and Rice's header deep into stoppage-time.

The wild celebrations from Arteta and his players underlined the significance of a gritty escape that will fuel the belief Arsenal can finally win their first title since 2004.

Gabriel Martinelli had opened the scoring for Arsenal, with Luton's Gabriel Osho equalising and Gabriel Jesus restoring the visitors' advantage just before half-time.

Elijah Adebayo scored Luton's second equaliser soon after half-time thanks to the first of Raya's mistakes and Ross Barkley benefitted from another error from the Spaniard.

But England midfielder Rice had the last word.

Luton have made it hard for supposedly superior teams on their home turf this season, earning an impressive 1-1 draw with Liverpool, who needed a last-gasp equaliser from Luis Diaz to avoid defeat.

Arteta's men have been road warriors since the start of last season — winning 17 away games in that period — and the Gunners' first trip to Kenilworth Road for 32 years brought their first victory at the venue since 1984. They struck first in the 20th minute when Bukayo Saka weaved his way down the right flank for a low cross that Martinelli met with a scuffed finish into the bottom corner from 12 yards.

Undone by a well-worked corner routine, Arsenal were left flat-footed five minutes later as Osho found space to thump his header past Raya from 10 yards for his first Premier League goal. Jesus put Arsenal back ahead on the stroke of half-time with a close-range header from Ben White's looping cross.

Luton's set-piece prowess provided another plot twist in the 49th minute when Adebayo rose highest to head home from close-range after Raya flapped at Alfie Doughty's corner.

Rob Edwards' side lead the Premier League in set-piece goals this season, with over 50 percent coming from free-kicks, corners and penalties.

The Hatters had no need to unleash their dead-ball excellence as they grabbed a third goal thanks to another Raya blunder in the 57th minute.

Former Chelsea midfielder Barkley glided away from White inside the area for a low shot that squirmed under Raya's weak attempted save.

But Arsenal were level again just three minutes later through Havertz, who poked home from close-range after Jesus showed impressive strength to hold off his marker before picking out the German's run.

Showing the fortitude of potential champions, Arsenal kept pushing for the winner and completed their spirited fightback in the seventh minute of stoppage-time.

THINKING OUT THE (LUNCH) BOX

Upgrading himself from his easy and nutritious lunchbox recipes, city-based Harish Closepet has reached the top six finalists of the ongoing MasterChef India, and is now looking forward to a strategy-based contest

MONIKA MONALISA

Harish Closepet planned to keep his love for cooking limited to his family, friends, and most importantly, the lunch box of his daughter. Never did he think that things would snowball into a full-fledged Instagram page (@harrys_lunchbox), which would lead him to MasterChef India. "This whole food journey has been a sensation for me from starting my Instagram page and getting into MasterChef which was pretty challenging. But once I got in, the journey was exciting. I made lots of new friends and learned new techniques," says Closepet aka Harry, on a call from Mumbai.

MasterChef was never on the cards for Closepet but it was his daughter who pushed him to apply for it and now, he is among the top six finalists on the show. "My daughter said, 'Dad, why don't you apply?' Initially, I was quite reluctant since it seemed tough. She said, 'You just apply now, we will later see what happens." So I did just that, and they called me for the first round of auditions," recalls Closepet, who went ahead and cleared the other auditions too. "The fifth one was a big one where I got the apron and my daughter put it on me. I couldn't believe I was in the MasterChef kitchen," says Closepet with disbelief even now.

Cooking on a show of this stature is different from what Closepet has been doing all this while. However, that didn't intimidate him for a second. "It was not intimidating because I have travelled the world and experienced many different things. But it was very challenging. My food is all based on simple, easy-to-do 15-20 minute recipes. I had to elevate myself to do something a lot more creative," says Closepet, adding, "I used all the techniques I knew in the past – like Singaporean cooking in Australia – and created something interesting. Of course, I only cook vegetarian food. Here, I also understood plating concepts which I never did," says Closepet.

He emphasises that competitive cooking is not just about being up for challenges, it is also about strategising moves. His watermelon rice was such an example, that even internationally-acclaimed chef Marco Pierre White could not stop praising. As a part of the challenge, all the contestants were given only 200ml of water to cook. "We had this five-minute pantry so I went in and started looking at things where I could get more fluids to cook. I saw the watermelon which contains 80% water. I grabbed it, extracted the juice, and put all the masalas and cooked the rice in it. It had a good tone of sweetened spice, I also squeezed in a bit of lemon. I didn't expect it to turn out as well as it did," says Closepet.

As the tasks get tougher, he is bracing for the challenges. "I am competitive. But strategy-based competition is what I like to do," he signs off.

Itambé Minas, volleyball giants, practised routines in Bengaluru, ahead of the Men's Club World Championship taking place in the city till December 10

SANJANA JAYASHANKAR

The sensational Brazilian men's volleyball team Itambé Minas slammed and sent balls soaring up high in the new court at the Padukone-Dravid Centre for Sports Excellence, Yelahanka. The new game space, a collaboration between The Bengaluru Torpedoes and Centre for Sports Excellence opened its doors recently ahead of the much-anticipated Men's Club World Championship that will be played at Koramangala Indoor Stadium till December 10.

It will be India's first time hosting the prestigious tournament where Brazil's Itambé Minas and Sada Cruzeiro Vôlei, Italy's Sir Sicoma Perugia, Turkey's Halkbank Spor Kulübü, Japan's Suntory Sunbirds and India's Ahmedabad Defenders will compete. The preliminaries took place on December 6 with a game-defining battle between Itambé Minas and Ahmedabad Defenders. As the team of 14 arrived at the court in their royal blue jerseys and began with their warm-up practice session in the newly-unveiled Torpedoes home ground, Austin Wilmot, 25, Middle Blocker told CE, "These are the kind of drills we do to start off our practice generally. It's a good warm-up, it's good control with your platform to get some good touch with your hands, and get accustomed to the gym, the lights and everything." The team practised drills that enhanced their arm strength for receiving the opponent's balls.

When the question arose of who the American Middle Blocker is excited to play against, he says, "If I had to pick one, I'd say Halkbank. My friend and fellow American Micah Ma'a (Setter), is playing on that team as well as Nimir Abdel-Aziz (Opposite), Earvin Ngapeth (Outside hitter.) There's some crazy talent on that team, last year they went undefeated in the season so it's going to be fun to play them hopefully."

The new head coach for the season, Guilherme Novaes Pinto Ferreira was particularly thrilled about the reigning volleyball champions, Italy's Sir Sicoma Perugia. "Our pool has Ahmedabad Defenders, and Perugia, the best team in the world, so two difficult matches. I hope it will be a good championship and I hope we'll pass to the next stage, to semi-finals."

Brazilian men's volleyball team Itambé Minas practising at the Padukone-Dravid Centre for Sports Excellence in Yelahanka

Currently known as one of the best teams in the world, Itambé Minas holds titles such as silver in the Brazilian Superleague, 2022-23 and silver in the South American Club Championship, 2022-23. Wilmot who plays for the US national team as well, was all praises for his Brazilian club, including players such as Gustavo Orlando, 21 (Setter), Filipe Baioco, 20 (Libero), Samuel Neufeld, 19 (Opposite), and more.

Remarking on their journey so far, he says, "I'm proud that in every tournament we got a silver medal, which obviously you want a gold medal but it's cool that I have six silver medals from the last year. Hopefully, one of these days we'll bring in a gold but it's still pretty cool to know that you're one of the best among the continent or in your country and you get to represent your country on a global scale like we're doing here."

PRASARITA PADOTTANASANA C VARIATION

(WIDE-LEGGED FORWARD BEND POSE C VARIATION)

This pose could be therapeutic for individuals experiencing mild depression or anxiety, and may offer relief for those who have a headache or feel fatigued. It focuses on the hips, hamstrings, and the arms and shoulders.

STEPS

- From Upward Forward Fold pose, stretch your feet apart and take a few breaths.
- Inhale, stretch your upper body. Exhale, bend, ensuring your feet are firm on the floor, and go into Prasarita Padottanasana (Intense Leg Stretch Pose).
- Inhale, take the arms behind you interlocking them, facing upwards. Exhale, bring the head down touching the floor.
- Keep your interlocked hands close to back of the hips.
- Stay here for about 10 breaths and feel the stretch as you go deeper into the pose.
- To release the pose, inhale and come back into your original pose.
- Finally, release the pose completely and relax in Dandasana (Staff Pose).

BENEFITS

- Increases muscle strength and flexibility.
- Stretches the muscles of arms, shoulders, chest, abdomen, hips, back, legs, and calves.
- Spine becomes flexible, supporting the body balance.
- Encourages the utilisation of the prana, helping in circulation of blood to the shoulders, neck and head.
- Reduces stress around the neck and shoulders, fatigue in the body and the muscles.
- Activates and balances the Muladhara Chakra (Root), Swadisthana Chakra (Sacral), and Manipura Chakra (Solar Plexus).
- Activates these chakras, encouraging stability, confidence, self-control, and acceptance.

EMBRACING WINTER WELLNESS

A comprehensive guide to diet, yoga, exercise, and skincare for arthritis and diabetes

DR NARENDRA SHETTY

As winter casts its chilly spell, individuals grappling with arthritis and diabetes often find themselves facing health challenges. The cold weather can intensify symptoms, making it crucial to adopt a holistic approach to self-care. In this guide, we delve into the intricate balance of winter care, exploring the significance of a well-rounded routine that encompasses diet, yoga, exercise, and skincare for those managing arthritis and diabetes.

(The writer is chief wellness officer, Kshemavana)

DIETARY STRATEGIES

- Nutrient-Rich Choices: Winter demands extra energy to combat the cold, and individuals with arthritis and diabetes should prioritise nutrient-dense foods. A well-balanced diet featuring an array of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, and lean proteins can provide essential vitamins and minerals crucial for overall health and disease management.
- Harnessing the Power of Omega-3 Fatty Acids: For those grappling with arthritis, incorporating omega-3 fatty acids into the diet can offer relief. Fish, flaxseeds, and walnuts are rich sources of these healthy fats, known for their anti-inflammatory properties. Including them in your meals may alleviate joint pain and stiffness.
- Mindful Carbohydrate Consumption: Individuals with diabetes need to be vigilant about their carbohydrate intake. Opting for complex carbohydrates with a low glycemic index, such as legumes and vegetables, can help regulate blood sugar levels. Fibre-rich foods can contribute to satiety and assist in blood sugar management.

EXERCISE FOR BLOOD SUGAR MANAGEMENT

- Aerobic Activities for Diabetes Control: Engaging in aerobic exercises, such as walking, swimming, or cycling, is pivotal for managing diabetes. These activities enhance insulin sensitivity, aiding in blood sugar control. During winter, indoor exercises like stationary cycling or aerobic dance provide effective alternatives.
- Strategic Strength Training for Arthritis Support: For those with arthritis, incorporating light strength training is essential. Strengthening muscles around joints can mitigate the impact on arthritic areas, reducing pain and discomfort. It's imperative to tailor exercises to individual capabilities and seek guidance from healthcare professionals or certified trainers.

YOGA FOR JOINT HEALTH

- Gentle Asanas to Soothe Joints: Winter exacerbates stiffness, particularly for arthritis sufferers. Gentle yoga poses, such as cat-cow stretches, child's pose, and twists, promote flexibility and alleviate joint discomfort. Regular practice can contribute to improved joint health and enhanced overall well-being.
- The Power of Meditation and Stress Reduction: Stress is a common exacerbating factor for both arthritis and diabetes. Integrating meditation and mindfulness practices into your daily routine can be transformative. Techniques like deep breathing and guided meditation foster relaxation, reducing stress levels and positively impacting mental health.

SKINCARE RITUALS IN WINTER

- Hydration as a Foundation: The winter air is notorious for sapping skin moisture, a concern amplified for individuals with diabetes, who may already contend with skin issues. Maintaining adequate hydration by drinking plenty of water and using a quality moisturiser is a fundamental step in supporting skin health.
- Guarding Against Extreme Temperatures: Those with arthritis often experience increased joint pain in extreme cold. Wearing layers, utilising joint wraps or braces, and ensuring extremities are well-covered can provide warmth and support. Diabetics should pay special attention to foot care, keeping feet warm, dry, and well-moisturised.

CONCLUSION

As winter unfolds, a proactive and holistic approach to health becomes paramount for those managing arthritis and diabetes. However, it's crucial to customise these recommendations to individual needs and seek personalised advice from healthcare professionals.

‘MY INTERACTION WITH THE REAL-LIFE COUPLE INSPIRED TO DO KAIVA’

says Jayathritha, as he discusses his upcoming romatic drama set in 1983, starring Dhanveerrah and Megha Shetty

A SHARADHAA

KAIVA, made by Jayathirtha, the director of Olave Mandara, Bell Bottom, Beautiful Manasugalu and Banaras, presents a tapestry of distinct elements. With a retro setting, the film unfurls a compelling romantic drama interlaced with the gritty hues of violence and crime from 1983.

Set to release on December 8, the film stars Dhanveerrah and Megha Shetty in lead roles, and has music by Ajaneesh Lokanath and cinematography by Shwet Priya Naik. ,

Kaiva's historical significance lies in the seamless inclusion of the century-old Karaga celebration, intricately woven into this romantic odyssey.

The director also unveils a snapshot of the tragic Gangaram building collapse on (September 12, 1983). Kaiva, also marks Jayathirtha's first attempt in the mass action genre, exploring the underworld of Bengaluru, particularly surrounding Tigarlarapete.

"Though Kaiva is anchored in a love story, the underworld backdrop becomes an integral setting, necessitating the portrayal of underworld characters albeit with altered identities for cinematic purposes."

What makes Kaiva intriguing is its conception. "During the shoot of Bell Bottom in 2019, my visit to a mortuary led to a conversation with a post-mortem assistant," shares Jayathirtha, "He recounted a chilling incident involving a man brutally murdered due to an intense love affair. Delving deeper, I connected with individuals tied to the incident who reluctantly shared their perspectives, unveiling the truth behind the man's drastic actions. This collective narrative forms the heart of Kaiva, rooted in a real-life incident."

Jayathirtha discloses his interaction with a real-life couple that inspired the film. However, respecting their privacy, he opted not to reveal their true identities or whereabouts.

"I brought in the fictitious name Kaiva, ensuring that every characte+r's name in the film is not an actual representation. The film, which resonates with a blend of reality and imagination, crafting a vivid portrayal that captivates, while keeps the anonymity of the couple intact, " he signs off.

I have a self-serving motive in working with new directors: Vijay Raghavendra

CE FEATURES

VIJAY Raghavendra, who will be seen portraying an investigative officer in Mareechi, has developed a newfound fondness for such roles and is readily embracing the Khaki uniform when the role demands it. "When it comes to investigations, there's a plethora of uncertainties and an ongoing quest. Much like how police officers, clad in their Khaki attire, delve into intriguing investigations, similarly, though I embody characters in the Khaki code across diverse films, the nature of investigations in each film varies. Directors approaching me with such investigative subjects have increased due to my intricate character portrayals of mine. Every time, it feels like stepping into the unknown.

Exploring these roles has made me realize the increasing knowledge among criminals, while also highlighting the supremacy of the law and how the police are trained to stay ahead of the enemy. That's what intrigues me about such subjects," explains Vijay Raghavendra ahead of his film's release this week.

Mareechi holds its significance, echoing the equilibrium between good and bad. "Not everything can be entirely good; there's always a shadow. Similarly, not everything can be entirely bad; there's a hint of goodness. It's all about circumstances and propelling ourselves forward. Committing a crime doesn't make me a better person, and just because I'm a policeman, not everything I do is inherently good. It's about how circumstances complicate things and how a story becomes captivating," reflects Raghavendra about the character, hinting at the complexities of life and society.

Overall, Vijay Raghavendra believes that since his role in Malgudi Days, the spectrum of roles offered to him has broadened, with forthcoming projects offering unique roles that promise more artistic scope. Admitting a self-serving motive in working with new directors, Vijay Raghavendra remarks, "We never know what ideas they have in store, and as new filmmakers, they tend to think outside-the-box. Whether it's Mareechi directed by Siddhruv or my future projects with newcomers, they exhibit ambition, well-executed ideas, and a solid understanding. However, they require a certain amount of guidance." He further explains the fine line between involvement and interference, stating, "By immersing ourselves in their subject and collaborating as a team, we create a compelling narrative. I share what works for me and the extent of freedom I need as an actor, laying out certain do's and don'ts in various aspects. All this contributes to a riveting entertainer," he explains.

The National Award winner, Vijay Raghavendra, isn't interested in larger-than-life stories. "I aim to connect with the audience not just in theaters but also in their homes. I don't want to be intimidated by portraying larger-than-life characters and worrying about the turnout of massive crowds in theaters. I don't want that uncertainty. I believe in pushing myself to my limits but within reasonable bounds, ensuring continuous entertainment is what I strive for," signs off.
